Criterion I: Curricular Aspects

2. Criteria - wise Inputs

Criterion I : Curricular Aspects

1.1 Curriculum Planning and Implementation.

1.1.1 State the vision, mission and objectives of the Institution, and how these are communicated to the students, teachers, staff and other stakeholders.

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College is one of the premier Institutions affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala. Ever since its inception in 1968, it has been a beacon of knowledge and purposeful education for the entire belt that lies between Hoshiarpur and Ropar. Named after the Ninth Guru, the college seeks to give contemporary relevance to the Prophet's message of righteous living and selfless service to humanity while drawing its motivational force from the serene atmosphere that permeates through the hallowed town of Sri Anandpur Sahib, the birth place of the Khalsa.

We take pride in mentioning that this college is one of the prestigious educational Institution under the management of Shiromani Gurdwara Prabandhak Committee (Amritsar), the single largest representative body of the Sikhs enacted under special Act of Indian Parliament. This apex religious body primarily responsible for the upkeep of the sacred Sikh shrines and propagation of religion, also runs a large number of schools and colleges providing quality education to all, particularly the downtrodden and economically weaker sections of the society. Following the vision of the Gurus, this organization has taken upon itself to carry the light of knowledge even to the fringe areas so as to counteract the onslaught of Western influence and to create awareness and opportunities among the young persons by giving them opportunities to make them self reliant and employable in the competitive world of today.

Our Vision :

"Shubh Karman Te Kabhun Na Taron"

(" May I never refrain from righteous deeds")

True to this ideology, this college recognizes the importance of imparting such education as will transform the youth into mentally enlightened, morally upright and enterprising individuals who will have the confidence and skills required to follow the right path and to hold their head high in society. It can be possible through right thinking which springs from right learning. We firmly believe that only right thinking can lead to right action, for this reason all our efforts are directed towards making wholesome individuals who are action- oriented, mentally alert and morally strong.

Our Mission :

The college, through its activities strives to achieve the ultimate goal of education, i.e. emancipation of mind, in order to promote it as an institution of excellence by providing the rural youth with educational opportunities enriched with high moral and ethical values along with latest technology so that the students are well-fitted in the present-day volatile global scenario.

Our Objectives :

- To provide students with the market relevant, need-specific and latest academic programmes in order to enhance their professional competence.
- To create conducive academic environment for the students so as to develop the best of skills for pursuing knowledge and develop into global citizens.
- To provide the best educational resources and essential infrastructures in order to convert them into confident and employable youth.
- To involve students in such activities, services and experience which foster personal growth by inculcating ethical and human values.
- Above all, to create value based knowledge society.

The vision and mission of the institution are communicated to the students, teachers, staff and other stakeholders through our programmes and policies. They are reflected even in the admission of students and selection of teachers. Our admission process is very transparent affair and all the rules are followed strictly. Special care is taken to see that economic backwardness does not thwart the chance of a bright student' chance for higher education. In the selection of teachers also merit is given high priority. No type of discrimination is allowed in the college. All efforts of the teachers and students to acquire more knowledge are given fair encouragement. The curriculum transaction is completed well in advance of the examination.

Programmes to enrich the academic ambience with co-curricular and extracurricular activities are given special thrust. The institution pays special attention for maintaining a calm and peaceful atmosphere. Political or factional rivalries are totally absent in the campus. Our extra-curricular and co-curricular programmes give special attention to supplement the students' knowledge with professional skills.

1.1.2 How does the institution develop and deploy action plans for effective implementation of the curriculum ? Give details of the process and substantiate through specific examples.

The college prepares a detailed action plan every year before the commencement of the new academic session. The deviations in the implementation of the curriculum during the previous year are reviewed and corrective actions are planned for the pursuing academic session. The college Academic Council prepares detailed action plan for the effective implementation of the curriculum whereby following measures are taken :

- All the Heads of the Departments are directed to prepare and follow a mechanism for the effective implementation of the curriculum. Meetings of all the teachers in the departments are held at regular intervals.
- Department Heads share the 'To-do' list with the teachers. Information is sought from them regarding the curriculum accomplished in the light of the vital course content.
- Individual teachers prepare the class-room activities on the lines of the syllabus plan with minute considerations to details (such as data, figures etc.). A specimen copy of the syllabus plan is attached.
- Departments prepare their own academic calendar(s) which correspond to the compiled Academic calendar of the institution.

Course content of the entire curriculum is segmented according to the academic calendar of the institution. For example :

- (i) Course content to be covered before MST-I & MST-II for semester system classes.
- (ii) For annual system, course content is planned according to the terms falling before Autumn break, Winter break and House Exams etc.
- (iii) Timetable is prepared and implemented for the completion of the curriculum as per the syllabuses of each class. It is circulated among the students and staff members at the beginning of the new academic session.

1.1.3 What type of support (procedural and practical) do the teachers receive (from the University and/or institution) for effectively translating the curriculum and improving teaching practices ?

1. Detailed Academic Calendar for the session is conveyed by the University to all its affiliated colleges for disseminating information to the students and teachers.
2. Detailed and revised syllabuses are made available before the commencement of the session.
3. Regular teachers are nominated as the members of various Boards of Studies responsible for preparing/modifying details of the syllabuses.
4. Inspections are carried out by the representatives of the University at the time of initiating a new course in the college.
5. Teachers are invited to attend conferences, work-shops and seminars organized by related departments of the University.
6. University organizes Orientation and Refresher courses for the teachers.

For effectively translating the curriculum the institution provides maximum working days, adequate infrastructure, teaching-learning aids as well as conducive academic atmosphere. In addition to that, requirements of the teachers are invited for effective implementation of the curriculum and they are provided with necessary support. Affiliating University, i.e. Punjabi University, Patiala, provides practical and procedural guidelines by various means. More specifically the following additional support system is available to the teachers:

- i. Well-stocked Library with collection of latest books, journals and magazines, e-lib facility with INFLIBNET.
- ii. Smart class rooms equipped with audio-visual aids.
- iii. Wi-Fi enabled campus and
- iv. 24-hour internet access.

1.1.4 Specify the initiatives taken up or contribution made by the institution for effective curriculum delivery and transaction of the curriculum provided by the affiliating university or other statutory agency.

The institution follows a well-regulated time-table for effective curriculum delivery. Curriculum is designed by Punjabi University, Patiala and the affiliating colleges have to strictly abide by it. After taking into account the feedback received from the students and other class-room situations, the teachers on the panel of board of studies request the University to introduce or curtail a certain portion of the syllabus. Accordingly, study materials are updated from time to time and the students are updated with latest knowledge in their field of study. Latest books and journals on the concerned subjects are purchased in time and placed in general library for students' use. The college has sufficient computer and science Labs equipped with latest electronic gadgets and other equipments. Departmental workshops, national and state level seminars and guest lectures are conducted regularly in the college.

1.1.5 How does the institution network and interact with beneficiaries such as industry, research bodies and the university in effective operationalization of the curriculum ?

The college has also set up career guidance cell which helps in networking and interacting with the industry. The institution motivates the departments to take the students to industrial visits related to their subjects (I.T. industries, Chemical industries, Banks, Co-operative societies, Scientific research institutes etc.). Students of various professional courses undertake Industrial Training courses as a part of the curriculum which helps them to gain practical knowledge in their field of study. Various business houses and industrial bodies are invited to the college to conduct Mock Interviews and Mock Tests. Seminars and workshops are organized in collaboration with research bodies such as ICSSR, UGC, DST etc.

1.1.6 What are the contributions of the institution and/or its staff members to the development of the curriculum by the university ? (number of staff members/departments represented on the Board of studies, student feedback, teacher feedback, stakeholder feedback provided, specific suggestions etc.

Teachers can influence curriculum planning only indirectly. Staff members who happen to be on the Board of Studies make suggestions regarding the relevance and requirement of particular course content. They give their suggestions to improve the quality of syllabus by including the current trends in the syllabus. For this the teachers mainly depend upon the feedback of the students and their co-teachers.

The institution constantly collects feedback from different stakeholders and well-wishers. PTS meetings, the Alumni meetings and IQAC provide a forum for collecting feedback from public. The data collected as feedback is consolidated and the opinions are discussed during meetings of the college council, IQAC, Academic Committee and Departmental Committees.

The output is communicated to the appropriate bodies through institutional agencies. The matters regarding the institution are communicated to the management through the Principal. Academic matters are put before the relevant/concerned University bodies through teacher-members. At present, the following faculty members are representing the college in the Board of Studies of the University :

1.1.7 Does the institution develop curriculum for any of the courses offered (other than those under the purview of the affiliating university) by it ? If 'yes', give details on the process (Needs, Assessment, design, development and planning) and the courses for which the curriculum has been developed.

No, it is mandatory for the institution to follow curriculum plan of the affiliating University. The institution works in an affiliated system where the normal academic programmes and curricula are controlled by the University. However, the institution is making full use of the opportunities offered by co-curricular and extra-curricular activities for supplementing the curriculum and giving it an institution-specific orientation.

1.1.8 How does institution analyze/ensure that the stated objectives of curriculum are achieved in the course of implementation ?

Periodical reviews are conducted and findings are further discussed in Academic council to ensure that the objectives of the curriculum are achieved. Students' feedback is acquired through regularly held Tutorial classes and random quizzing. Mid-semester and house exams are held at regular intervals to assess the students and to analyze the proper implementation of the curriculum. Attendance reports of the students from the faculty members are sought to ensure the completion of the curriculum. Feedback system is also utilized to monitor the faculty performance and the status of syllabus completion. The management involves itself in reviewing the university examination results.

1.2 Academic Flexibility

1.2.1 Specifying the goals and objectives give details of the certificate/diploma/skill development courses etc. offered by the institution.

In addition to the regular academic programmes, the college offers Punjabi University's Add-on course of Spoken English for communication skills for the students of all streams. The objective behind starting this course five years ago has been to give an opportunity to the students (coming from rural background) to improve their proficiency in English and to make them more eligible for the job market. A Diploma course (PGDCA) to provide knowledge in computer application has also been started by the college. It is meant to make the students of this educationally backward area computer savvy and well-equipped by making available to them the latest developments in information technology.

1.2.2 Does the institution offer programmes that facilitate twinning/dual degree ? If 'yes'. give details.

Punjabi University does not allow the college to offer independent programmes. The horizontal and vertical movement of students to select their choice of papers and streams has to be within the prescribed framework of the affiliating University. The students, currently doing their degree/course, are not permitted to appear for any other degree of their choice.

1.2.3 Give details on the various institutional provisions with reference to academic flexibility and how it has been helpful to students in terms of skills development, academic mobility, progression to higher studies and improved potential for employability. Issues may cover the following and beyond :

- Range of Core/Elective options offered by the University and those opted by the college
- Choice Based Credit System and range of subject options
- Courses offered in modular form
- Credit transfer and accumulation facility
- Lateral and vertical mobility within and across programmes and courses
- Enrichment courses

The college is affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala. It is mandatory for the institution to follow the rules and guidelines of the University in terms of academic flexibility. The college does not enjoy autonomy in the matters of syllabus preparation or framing of new courses. Short term courses such as Personality Development, Basic Computer. Knowledge and Coaching for competitive purposes are however offered from time to time along with the main course work.

- The college has taken up all other core/elective options which suit the needs of the students and the feeding area catered by the institution. The college cannot opt for all core/elective options offered by the university because of the limitation of the resources as well as a small number of takers.
- Choice based credit system has not yet been adopted by the affiliating university and the prevailing system of percentage is in mode.
- Some of the courses offered by the University subscribe to modular pattern/form. For example, the syllabus structure of some Elective subjects give the students choice of modules.
- There is no provision for Credit Transfer and accumulating facility by the affiliating university.
- There is a provision for lateral and vertical mobility in the initial days of an academic session. Students are given the opportunity to change subjects within the streams or change the course across the stream within the first month of the entry level courses.
- Enrichment workshops and seminars are held for the benefit of students at regular intervals, but there isn't any provision for an enrichment course as such because the courses and the course contents are designed by the affiliating University.

1.2.4 Does the institution offer self-financed programmes ? If 'yes', list them and indicate how they differ from other programmes, with reference to admission, curriculum, fee structure, teacher qualification, salary etc.

Yes, The college offers following self-financed programmes:

S. No.	Programme	Annual Fee	Duration

Admission to all these courses is essentially merit-based. Quality and not the quantity is given preference. The courses are well-advertised long before the commencement of the actual admission process and prospective applicants are asked to register themselves to ensure their seats.

The curriculum of these courses is enriched with more extra-curricular activities such as seminars, workshops, projects, trainings etc.

The fee structure of these self-financed programmes is comparatively higher, but very much within the limits set down by the University for privately managed institutions.

The institution appoints well qualified and experienced faculty members as per UGC guidelines. Only the subject knowledge and quality aspects qualify the faculty members for an appointment in the institution. Special incentives in the form of salaries are also offered to the deserving ones.

1.2.5 Does the college provide additional skill oriented programmes, relevant to regional and global employment markets ? If 'yes' provide details of such programme and the beneficiaries.

Yes, without transgressing its jurisdiction, the college has devised programmes such as special coaching programmes for the rural youth to cover up and compensate for their lack of proper orientation. There is also provision for short term Personality Enhancement Courses to pull up the level of the educationally and economically backward students so that they can match the expectations of global employment market. Remedial courses/classes in various subjects are especially offered to improve the performance of the low-scoring students.

Details of additional skill oriented programmes and their beneficiaries (2013-14) :

Sr. No.	Courses/classes	No. of Students benefitted	Percentage of Successful students
1	Coaching Programme	120	56%
2	Personality enhancement	257	80%
3	Remedial Course	469	75%

1.2.6 Does the University provide for the flexibility of combining the conventional face-to-face and Distance Mode of Education for students to choose the courses/combination of their choice ? If 'yes', how does the institution take advantage of such provisions for the benefit of students ?

This type of facility is not made available to the colleges by the University.

1.3 Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 Describe the efforts made by the institution to supplement the university's curriculum to ensure that the academic programmes and institution's goals and objectives are integrated ?

The academic programmes offered to the students are in line with the institution's goals and objectives and they, directly or indirectly, address the needs of the society. They are relevant to the regional, national and global trends and developments. Also, staff members on various panels of Board of Studies make requisite recommendations to the University keeping in view the goals and objectives of the institution so that curriculum can be improved and framed in such a way as to develop the best of skills for pursuing knowledge while paying attention to self-development, community and national development. This is the only available mechanism to integrate academic curricula and the goals and objectives of the institution. The college has started a number of new professional programmes/courses in the last 5 years and the purpose of starting such courses is to transform the youth into employable work-force relevant for the current market.

1.3.2 What are the efforts made by the institution to enrich and organize the curriculum to enhance the experience of the students so as to cope with the needs of the dynamic employment market?

The academic curricula designed by the University are reviewed and updated periodically and the college tries to find innovative methods to communicate different topics of curriculum to the students in order to make them employment- oriented.

Practical aspects are focused along with modern audio- visual teaching techniques, workshops and case studies related to the curriculum. Market relevant topics are selected to prepare the students for jobs and placement in the market. To enrich and organize the curriculum, the institution arranges:

- Guest lectures
- Industrial trainings
- Experts in different subjects and areas of study are invited during the semester
- Lectures are organized about dynamic market needs to acquaint them about the employment situation
- Teachers provide students with the most progressive, need-specific and latest know-how to enhance their professional competence. With the changing trends of time, courses such as graduation and post-graduation in Computer Application have been added. Similarly, B.Com (Accounting & Finance), B.Sc. (Agriculture), M.Sc. in Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics have also been included.

1.3.3 Enumerate the efforts made by the institution to integrate the cross cutting issues such as Gender, Climate change, Environmental Education, Human Rights, ICT etc. into the curriculum ?

The college follows co-education system; hence every teacher takes the responsibility of communicating general understanding about gender equality. Gender sensitization programmes are organized to help students overcome gender biases. Awareness regarding gender factor is also created through lectures and interaction between students and teachers. The college has formed a 'Nanni Chaan' club to sensitize the society (girls in particular) about the issues related with girl child.

Environmental education as a compulsory subject has been introduced by the University. Changes in the climate circle is an essential part of the EVS course. The college celebrates the Birthday of Seventh Sikh Master – Guru Har Rai Ji - as the 'World Sikh Environment Day'. Other than this, celebrating tree-plantation day (Van Mahotsav) is a regular feature of every session. Students are encouraged to participate in poster-making, paper-reading competitions to heighten the awareness about clean and healthy environment. NSS, Environment Club, NCC and other social clubs and societies of the college combine to inculcate awareness among students about human rights. All these cross cutting issues are also highlighted through tutorial groups.

Majority of teachers use ICT for supporting the contents of their lectures and for enhancing the students' comprehensibility. Most of the class rooms are equipped with projectors and audio-visual aids. Computer and internet facility is available in all the departments. College has ICT enabled Language Lab. College library, accounts branch, examination department are fully computerized.

The college has been given a piece of agricultural land by the management which will be specifically utilized for setting up an orchard and for cultivating organic farming based vegetables and floriculture. This institution is named after the Ninth Sikh Master – Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Ji – who sacrificed his life for protecting the human rights of people who did not profess his faith.

1.3.4 What are the various value-added courses/environment programmes offered to ensure holistic development of students?

Moral and ethical values :

Special celebrations and competitions on particular religious days are part and parcel of the college cultural calendar. Divine blessings are sought in the form of prayer in college campus at the beginning of every new session. Special Prayers, including students and the entire staff members are held at the start of every month (Bikrami Saka Calendar). Students are given guidance and counselling to follow moral and ethical value system. The college has also the provision for Religious Studies as one of the elective subjects for the under-graduate students. We have an active anti-ragging cell which observes the students closely against any criminal incident of ragging. Till date, no ragging case has ever been reported in the college campus or hostel.

Employable and life skills:

Industrial trainings, workshops, seminars, conferences, guest lectures, remedial coaching classes are conducted to ensure employable and life skills. Personality development and competition coaching classes are also held during summer break.

Better Career Options:

Career guidance cell has been constituted which appraises the students from time to time about career opportunities available to them. Clippings from the newspapers about career options and entrance tests are displayed well in time on the notice boards.

Community Orientation:

Membership of Guru Gobind Singh Study Circle is open to all those students who might wish to join it. This organization conducts exams and holds camps on ethical and religious lines. The NSS unit of the college takes out 'Chetna Marches' and conducts various awareness drives to make students socially accountable and responsible citizens. SGPC, the premier sikh religious body, also holds special religious exams. In this way concerted efforts are made by the college for the holistic development of the students. The District administration also organizes seminars and awareness programmes about voting rights, traffic rules, anti-drug and anti-corruption etc. During these awareness programmes, community participation is encouraged.

1.3.5 Citing a few examples enumerate on the extent of use of the feedback from stakeholders in enriching the curriculum.

The main curriculum is designed by the University and it is mandatory for the college to follow the curricula of various courses as prescribed by the affiliating university. Still, certain efforts are made to improve the curriculum keeping in view the goals and objectives of the institution. Students are served feedback performas (at the end of the course) for the analysis and assessment of the curriculum. Their suggestions are compiled and discussed in the Academic advisory council of the college. Direct feedback collected through interaction with the students is supplemented with the information gleaned from the feedback performas. Suggestions are also invited from the alumni, academic peers and the community. Requisite suggestions are communicated to the University by the teachers who are members of different Boards of Studies. The University gives due consideration and weightage to the suggestions and recommendations received from the stakeholders.

1.3.6 How does the institution monitor and evaluate the quality of its enrichment programmes ?

IQAC, faculty meetings, periodical reviews by the committees, Board of Studies, academic advisory council, other regulatory bodies of the institution and the University help to monitor and improve the quality enrichment programmes developed by the institution.

1.4 Feedback System

1.4.1 What are the contributions of the Institution in the design and development of the curriculum prepared by the University?

The Institution is affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala, and the curriculum is basically designed and planned by the members of the Board of Studies. The faculty members who are on the panel of different Boards get a chance to influence the curriculum in its gestation state, albeit indirectly. They have the feedback from the students and they know the prevailing trends of the feeding area. These factors are conveyed to the core planners of the curriculum.

1.4.2 Is there a formal mechanism to obtain feedback from students and stakeholders on curriculum? If 'yes' how is it communicated to the university and made use of internally for curriculum enrichment and introducing changes/new programmes.

The Institution gives high priority for collecting feedback from different stakeholders. Students and parents are the prominent sources of our feedback. The Departments and individual teachers collect direct feedback from students through elaborate performas which permit exhaustive analysis of the programmes, practices, strengths and limitations of the system, individuals as well as the Institution. Feedback from the parents is collected during PTS meetings. Academic peers provide a strong correcting force. The Institution gets many opportunities to interact with academic peers officially as well as unofficially and the views of these persons are valued with high respect. A lot of data is generated by feedback from different sources. The Institution has representation in various bodies of the University through its faculty and they also provide a route for communicating the Institutional opinion and suggestions. The University introduced Semester system in various courses during the year. Due to the suggestions put forth by the faculty members, the University revised the curriculum of English Elective (B.A. I) making it more streamlined and student-friendly.

1.4.3 How many new programmes/courses were introduced by the Institution during the last four years? What was the rationale for introducing new courses/programmes ?

New Programmes/Courses introduced by the institution during the last four years are as given under :

S. No.	Programme/Course
Undergraduate Courses
1.	B.Com. (Professional)
2.	B.Com. (A & F)
3.	B.B.A.
4.	B.Sc. (Agriculture)
5.	B.C.A.
6.	Certificate Course in Spoken English
Postgraduate Courses
1.	M.A. (Punjabi)
2.	M.A. (Hindi)
3.	M.A. (English)
4.	M.A. (History)
5.	M.Sc. (IT)
6.	M.Sc. (IT) Lateral Entry
7.	M.Sc. (Physics)
8.	M.Sc. (Chemistry)
9.	M.Sc. (Mathematics)
10.	M. Com.
11.	PGDCA

The basic rationale behind the introduction of these courses has been the persistent demand expressed by the students and other stakeholders. For example, B.Sc. Agriculture is area-specific and has turned out to be very popular with agricultural community. On the other hand, courses such as B.B.A., B.Com.

(Professional), B.Com(Accounting & Finance) are market-relevant and enhance employability in the corporate sector/business world. The introduction of Masters in some subjects enable the students to fulfill their ambition for higher education while saving them the expenditure of going all the way to the University in Patiala or Chandigarh. These new courses are also significant milestones in the institution's onward march. They have upgraded the institution while adding to its esteem.

Any other relevant information regarding curricular aspects which the college would like to include.

The college has got approval from Punjabi University, Patiala, for starting M.Sc. programmes in Mathematics, Chemistry and Physics. Two new subjects–Music Vocal & Fine Arts– have also been approved by the University. M.A. courses in English and Hindi have also been sanctioned by the University.

Criterion II: Teaching - Learning and Evaluation

Criterion II : Teaching-Learning and Evaluation

2.1 Student Enrollment and Profile

2.1.1 How does the college ensure publicity and transparency in the admission process?

Publicity :

The college is using techniques to ensure wide publicity to the admission process, which include college prospectuses, institutional website, CCTV publicity mode, flax boards, pamphlets and advertisements in regional/national newspapers. Teams of the college teaching staff visit schools and colleges of the area well before the admission time to publicise college profile among the prospective admission seekers through documentary and visual aids.

Information imparting/career counselling and guidance cell of the college is active during pre-admission days. Special hand-outs and brochures are prepared to disseminate adequate information about activities, achievements and profile of the college.

Transparency :

Our admission process to various courses is very transparent, for the rules and regulations of the state government, affiliating university and the college management committee are strictly followed and equity with regard to geographical area, socio-economic strata, cultural or demographic backgrounds is strictly maintained. Irrespective of all these considerations, admission is open to all the deserving ones. Admission Committees, under the convenership of senior staff members are constituted. The admission process of all the affiliated colleges is controlled by common rules and schedule fixed by the University. Applications are invited for different courses and subjects as per the prescribed schedule, and merit list is prepared and displayed on the college notice board and college website. Last dates of admission, with or without late fee, are also adhered to. Three days are given for depositing the fees to those students whose names appear in the college merit list. All details regarding admission process are fully disclosed in all the publicity documents being used by the college, such as prospectus, pamphlets, brochures etc.

2.1.2 Explain the details the criteria adopted and process of admission (Ex (i) merit (ii) Common admission test conducted by state agencies and national agencies(iii)) combination of merit and entrance test or merit, entrance test and interview (iv) any other) to various programmes of the Institution.

Merit is the only criterion and consideration for admission to various programmes and courses in the college. Applications are invited well in advance. Specific admission committees concerned with different streams conduct the interview taking into account all the queries and admission requirements of the students. After due processing, merit list is prepared and displayed on college notice board and website. There is no such course in the college for which common entrance test by national or state agency is required.

2.1.3 Give the minimum and maximum percentage of marks for admission at entry level for each of the programmes offered by the college and provide a comparison with other colleges of the affiliating university within the city/district.

Minimum percentage of the marks essential for the eligibility to a particular course has been clearly laid out by the affiliating University and that minimum percentage is strictly adhered to by the college. While comparing the percentage of marks for admission at entry level with nearby colleges, it has been noted that, relatively speaking, the admission seekers with better percentage opted for this college. In some of the courses SGTB Khalsa College has been the only choice for the admission seekers as this college is the only institution offering those courses in this area. For Example, B.Sc. (Agriculture), B.Com (Professional), B.Com (Accounting and Finance) and M.Sc. in the subjects of Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. In addition to these courses, subjects like Religious Studies, Defense Studies, Gurmat Sangeet give an edge to the college over other neighboring colleges as these subjects are not offered by them.

2.1.4 Is there a mechanism in the institution to review the admission process and student profiles annually ? If 'Yes' what is the outcome of such an effort and how has it contributed to the improvement of the process ?

During every session the admission process is reviewed and new strategies are worked out to improve the process/procedure. The Principal of the college and college Academic council hold meeting after the admission is over to analyse the drawbacks and discuss the strategies to fill up the loopholes, if any. Students' profiles are also scrutinized to trace out the scope for improvement in admission process.

Before the start of the admission process, high-powered admission committee is constituted which scrutinizes previous admission procedure and its implications in the light of the students' profiles. On the basis of this scrutiny, a blue-print for the coming session is prepared to improve the process further.

The strategies followed have brought improvement in the admission process, making it more transparent and student friendly. Consequently, the strength of the students, both quantitatively and qualitatively, has also improved effectively. Thus, such kinds of efforts as these have considerably contributed to the improvement and refinement of admission process.

2.1.5 Reflecting on the strategies adopted to increase/improve access for following categories of students, enumerate how the admission policy of the institution and its student profiles demonstrate/reflect the national commitment to diversity and inclusion -- SC/ST, OBC, Women, Differently abled, Economically weaker sections, Minority community, Any other.

These categories are taken special care of while designing and preparing the admission process. Relaxation in the percentage for admission as per central government rules is ensured. Similarly, reservation of seats for SC/ST/OBC is maintained according to state/national norms. There is also adequate provision of scholarships for the SC/ST/OBC/, differently abled and single girl child sponsored by the state government, by UGC, by the college management and by some NGOs.

Separate cell is constituted to help the students in filling up the scholarship forms for those categories of students who deserve such scholarships. Students belonging to these categories are assisted in getting their scholarships in time. The information about scholarships available to them is well-publicised through specially designed flax boards and notice-boards. Some staff members are deputed to help the students with their scholarship forms. They make all out efforts to smooth out the process of completing the forms so that the beneficiaries may get their scholarship amount duly.

As far as women/differently abled/weaker sections are concerned, the college administration, certain NGOs and other agencies provide the required help to such students. Our management has always paid special attention to the education of girls and encourages admission of women candidates in different courses. The college deploys buses for helping the girl students to commute conveniently from adjoining towns and nearby villages.

There is no discrimination at any level. Minority communities are treated like all the rest. All efforts are made to ensure their admission if they fulfil the conditions set forth by the University.

The college administration pays special attention to ensure that differently abled students do not face any difficulty while attending their classes. They are assisted personally by the office, library and canteen staff.

2.2 Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 How does the institution cater to the needs of differently-abled students and ensure adherence to government policies in this regard ?

Differently-abled students are given special attention right from the date of submission of the application for admission. All applicants belonging to this category are granted admission if they fulfil the eligibility criteria of the affiliating university. Special steps are taken to facilitate the mobility of the physically challenged students, such as :

- i. Differently-abled student are allocated that section which has the classroom on the ground floor.

- ii. Student helpers are provided in all blocs to voluntarily help the physically challenged to move around with ease.
- iii. In case the need arises, scribes authorized by the University are provided.
- iv. Wheel chair is made available for those physically challenged who require it.

2.2.2 Does the institution assess the students in terms of knowledge and skills before the commencement of the programme? If 'yes', give details on the process.

Yes, there is a provision for assessing students' knowledge and skills before the commencement of the programme. The information collected from students' profiles is used as the base for assessing the students' needs. Factors such as general background, percentage of marks, economic-geographical and demographic aspects are taken into consideration to assess knowledge and skills available to them. Once their needs and problem areas have been earmarked and assessed, essential steps are taken, such as special classes, counselling by senior faculty members, group discussions with the peers etc. in order to alleviate their fears and apprehensions.

2.2.3 What are the strategies adopted by the institution to bridge the knowledge gap of the enrolled students (Bridge/Remedial/Add-on/Enrichment Courses, etc.)to enable them to cope with the programme of their choice ?

Conscientious efforts are made to fill up the knowledge gaps of the enrolled students through following strategies :

- Students who register themselves for professional courses during the new session are called to participate in Bridge courses conducted by senior faculty members. These Bridge courses are conducted before the commencement of the classes. Potential admission seekers at undergraduate level are invited to attend bridge course once the XIIth class exams are over.
- Remedial courses are arranged for low-scoring students of commerce and science streams specially and in the subject of Mathematics invariably. These courses have always proved to pull up the level of the students.
- Extra classes are also organized on Sundays and during holidays to enhance the performance of the students (high scoring as well as low scoring). These special classes sharpen their learning skills and grasping power while helping the students prepare for examination in a more thorough manner.

- Departmental as well as inter-disciplinary seminars, group-discussions and declamation contests are organized from time to time as enrichment programmes.

2.2.4 How does the college sensitize its staff and students on issues such as gender, inclusion, environment etc. ?

There is a provision for an orientation programme for the freshly appointed staff members at the start of the session, during which they are sensitized on these issues. The orientation programme precedes the regular teaching work and includes guest lectures, inter-active sessions with the senior faculty and the Principal, Once the staff has been sensitized, that information is percolated through the students. They are further sensitized about the issues of gender and inclusion in tutorial classes and through specially organized lectures. Students are not discriminated on the basis of their disability, unprivileged status or economic backwardness. Monetary help is also given to such students and most of the staff members contribute to the corpus meant for such help. Senior faculty members convince the fresh joiners to extend help towards this noble cause. All the students study environmental science as a compulsory subject. In addition to that they are also enlightened about the preservation of environment during N.S.S. activities.

2.2.5 How does the institution identify and respond to special educational/learning needs of advanced learners?

An initial assessment of the students' capabilities is made by analyzing the marks scored during the qualifying examinations. The institution identifies the advanced learners through students' profiles collected at the time of admission. The institution conducts two mid-term tests in addition to regular class tests. These two assessing practices enable the teacher/tutor to identify advanced learners.

Special and personalized attention is paid to the needs of advanced learners. They are encouraged to study so as to get university positions. There is a provision for Mentor-Mentee Club to develop enhanced rapport among teachers and students. They can seek personal guidance and get career-counselling during their interaction with their tutors. This helps in their skill development and knowledge development as well.

2.2.6 How does the institute collect, analyze and use the data and information on the academic performance (through the programme duration) of the students at risk of drop out (students from the disadvantaged sections of society, physically challenged, slow learners, economically weaker sections etc. who may discontinue their studies if some sort of support is not provided) ?

Students' profiles collected at the time of admission are the main source of information about the academic performances of students with poor abilities. An initial assessment of the student's capacity is made by analyzing the marks scored in the qualifying examination. Mid-term tests also help in identifying the slow learners. The information given in admission forms is also used to identify students coming from disadvantaged sections or economically weaker sections. Students are guided to apply for available scholarships if they come from economically weaker or disadvantaged sections of society. They are also advised to take their course books through Book Bank. A close watch is kept over the attendance and class-room performance of the students. Those falling short in the matter of attendance are called and counselled by teachers in general and by career guidance cell in particular. Their parents/guardians are informed about the situation and asked to come and discuss. Those who profess their inability to continue studies due to financial reasons are given financial aid through Staff Fund, Red Cross Fund or through the funds donated by some philanthropic individuals and NGOs.

2.3 Teaching – Learning Process

2.3.1 How does the college plan and organize the teaching, learning and evaluation schedules? (Academic calendar, teaching plan, evaluation blueprint etc.)

After proper deliberations the Principal and the members of the college Academic council prepare academic calendar of the new session every year. It contains the details not only of the academic activities but also of all other activities in the college. The academic calendar is uploaded on the college website. Students are informed about it through notices as well.

Class-room teaching is scheduled as per the dates prescribed by the affiliating University and the academic calendar corresponds to that time-schedule. Teaching plan is prepared by each teacher according to the specific requirements of the allocated subjects in proportion to the allotted periods. Weekly or monthly plan of the syllabus is duly communicated to the students and the copy of the same is given to the Dean Academics for effective implementation. Heads of the Departments ensure that the proposed teaching plan is strictly adhered to. Departmental calendars, which include special activities and monthly events, such as tests, seminars, guest lectures etc., are also charted out in tandem with the main academic calendar.

Academic council meetings, departmental meetings and staff meetings are conducted from time to time to discuss the academic plans and matters. A suggestion box has been installed in the college and the students provide their feedback regarding the academic programmes and the quality of teaching through it. Students are also encouraged to interact with the faculty members regarding their academic issues and problems.

Evaluation blue print is prepared well in advance alongside the academic calendar. The evaluation schedule is based on class tests, mid-semester tests, house tests, conditional tests and the final examination. The schedules of house tests and mid-semester tests are incorporated in the academic calendar itself at the commencement of the new academic session. The students are also evaluated on the basis of their class work, assignments, class participation, projects, workshops, viva and seminars.

2.3.2 How does IQAC contribute to improve the teaching-learning process ?

IQAC is operative in the college as per the UGC/NAAC requirement and it is consistently working towards realizing the goal of quality enhancement and sustenance initiatives. IQAC of the college monitors the entire academic programme through sustained efforts to improve the academic and administrative performance of the institution. The part of the syllabus covered, lesson plans and the notes prepared by the teachers are often cross-checked.

IQAC has periodical interaction with the students and the faculty to create a healthy environment for teaching and learning. Monthly tutorial classes are held to get feedback response from the students. Parents and other stakeholders are regularly informed about quality related institutional processes adopted by the college.

2.3.3 How is learning made more student-centric ? Give details on the support structures and systems available for teachers to develop skills like interactive learning, collaborative learning and independent learning among the students ?

Sufficient support system is available in the form of well equipped, computerized library, internet connectivity, on-line journals, laboratories furnished with latest equipment and audio-visual aids. This support structure is used by the teachers to make classroom teaching more effective.

In addition to the support structure, learning is made more student-centric and interactive by ensuring that the teaching session should also be learning session for students. This is accomplished by the following process. The teacher widens his/her knowledge by thorough study supplemented with departmental discussions, and then prepares the topic with focused interest. The information collected thus is then imparted to the students verbally and graphically. For the purpose of collaborative learning, seminars, group discussions, workshops, guest lectures, soft-skill boosting sessions and academic functions are organized from time to time.

The teacher is responsible for the learning of students and uses every skill at his/her disposal to engage the students' interest and to make them work. Teachers also suggest books for independent reading and thus guide the students to broaden their self-study according to their individual capacities. Lecture is prepared taking into view different levels of students present in the class.

2.3.4 How does the institution nurture critical thinking, creativity and scientific temper among the students to transform them into life-long learners and innovators ?

To inculcate critical thinking among the students, the college has made special provision for library period in the Time Table. During the library period they are expected to expand their learning by consulting books other than those of their course work. Students are also involved in group discussions and asked to respond to mock situations related to their subject areas. To nurture creativity besides critical thinking, students are encouraged to write for the college magazine. Essay writing competitions are also organized for the students to whet their creative instincts. Various kinds of activities and competitions are included in the departmental teaching plans; for example, poster and collage making, quiz and declamation contests, documentaries and ppt presentations etc. Scientific temper is developed by giving the students an experience of industrial trips, educational tours and trade fairs at regular intervals. Students are also sent to exhibitions and science fairs.

2.3.5 What are the technologies and facilities available and used by the faculty for effective teaching ? e.g. Virtual laboratories, e-learning resources from National Programme on Technology Enhanced Learning (NPTEL) and National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology (NME-ICT), open educational resources, mobile education, etc.

The entire campus of the college is fully Wi-fi enabled. On-line connectivity is available for 24 hours. Teachers are free to access internet in their own departments and in the college library, as per their teaching needs. Teachers are also encouraged to use ICT tools for the effective implementation of the curriculum. Some classrooms are fully equipped with latest pedagogical requirements such as digital smart boards, LCD projectors, laptops etc. The Language Lab of the college aims at improving communication skills in English.

The college has fully computerized and well-stocked library having a wide variety of books, journals and magazines. This collection is further updated and replenished on regular basis as per the requirements of the faculty and the students. The college also possesses the e-library facility from INFLIBNET. The teachers regularly visit the library and use its resources for widening their knowledge base in order to polish their teaching skills.

The college also has well-equipped science and computer laboratories with ultramodern and sophisticated apparatus such as Analytical balance, Incubator, high quality Binocular Microscopes, Laminar flow, Autoclave, Kjeldahl apparatus, G.M. counter, C.R.O. (Two Beam), Spectrometer, Laser, Diffraction Grating, Newton's Ring apparatus etc.

2.3.6 How are the students and faculty exposed to advanced level of knowledge and skills (blended learning, expert lectures, seminars, workshops etc.) ?

Students are exposed to advanced level of knowledge and skills through workshops, seminars and extension lectures. They are also sent to other institutions to participate in various competitions.

Orientation programmes are organized in the college for the faculty. At the beginning of every session the faculty is exposed to the challenges and expectations confronting them as teachers. These and other vital issues pertaining to classroom teaching are addressed by experts and special invitees from teaching and administrative fields.

Teachers and students are also exposed to expert views and guidance through National level and State Level seminars, talks/lectures held during the session. Faculty members are encouraged to attend conferences, workshops, symposiums, etc. The teachers are also motivated to undertake research projects.

2.3.7 Detail (process and the number of students benefitted) on the academic, personal and psycho-social and guidance services (professional counseling/monitoring/academic advice) provided to students ?

Majority of the students benefit during every session from various cells and clubs formed to help and guide the students. The college has Women Guidance Cell, 'Nanni Chaan' Society, Grievance Redressal Cell, Counselling and Guidance Cell, Mentor-Mentee Club besides regularly held Tutorial Classes. These cells are active all through the session and take up issues falling within their respective spheres whenever the need arises. The faculty members are always available to provide professional counselling or academic advice to the students. Students are free to approach their teachers for any kind of guidance that they may need or desire. A good number of students constantly approach their teachers, especially senior faculty members, for advice on personal and academic matters. The teachers, on their part, make every possible effort to handle any kind of personal or psycho-social issue discretely and amicably keeping in view the seriousness and wider implications of the matter.

Number of Students benefitted

S.No.	Programme	Frequency of Programme	No. of Students per Session (Approx.)
1.	Personal Hygiene and Health	4-5 every year	200
2.	Academic Counseling	10-15 every year	100-150
3.	Value Education	2-3 every year	400-500
4.	Divinity Classes	2-3 every year	60-70
5.	Psycho-Social	On regular basis	500-600
6.	Career Counseling and Guidance	2-3 every year	100-150

2.3.8 Provide details of innovative teaching approaches/methods adopted by the faculty during the last four years. What are the efforts made by the institution to encourage the faculty to adopt new and innovative approaches and the impact of such innovative practices on student learning ?

Amongst the innovative teaching methods, generally interactive method is appreciated by the students, and teachers are well aware of this component of class room teaching. For the past 2-3 years, ICT enabled teaching has become an essential aspect of teaching due to the incorporation of smart/digital class rooms equipped with interactive boards into the infrastructure of some departments.

Since the entire campus is fully Wi-fi enabled, students have free access to internet. Some teachers use the processes of e-learning in conjunction with face-to-face teaching. They frequently make use of audio or videotapes, CD-ROMs and computer based learning to supplement and support their lectures and course work. Preparing ppt presentation is part of the course work of some professional classes. To make teaching more interesting, interactive and innovative teachers often plan Role Playing by the students, during which students are expected to read aloud from a text in a group. This technique is, however, not found suitable for science subjects or practical based subjects. The facility to use internet during class room teaching has brought in new dimension to class room teaching. Seminar based teaching is another innovative method practiced in two forms: class room seminars and specially organized seminars Opportunity for computer assisted learning is now available to all students, the college keeps on augmenting its infrastructural base by including latest teaching learning aids to keep up with the educational requirements of the current times. Environment is provided to encourage the teachers to use latest technology available to them.

Innovative teaching methods have led to the development of confidence and research aptitude in students. They have become more capable to relate themselves to the changing needs of the times. Their frequent and regular use of eLearning and internet facilities enable them to place their educational goals in global context. The self-assurance acquired through the experience of innovative teaching practices helps to kindle reasoning skills and original thinking among the students. The positive impact is evident in the students' readiness to take up projects and power-point presentations.

2.3.9 How are library resources used to augment the teaching-learning process ?

The college has a centralized library system and all books are listed in the library database. The main library is spacious and has plentiful titles of books besides journals and magazines. It has an exclusive A.C. reading hall, too. Every year new titles are added to the central database. Since the library is fully computerized and Wi-fi enabled, facilities such as eLearning and reprography help to augment the teaching-learning process. These facilities are being used by the faculty and students alike.

There is a provision for special library period for professional classes in the main time-table of the college. The library has Book Bank through which books are loaned to the students for longer duration. The college has acquired N-List programme of INFLIBNET under which 2100 reputed National and International journals and more than 50,000 books are available to the students and the faculty.

2.3.10 Does the institution face any challenges in completing the curriculum within the planned time frame and calendar? If 'Yes', elaborate on the challenges encountered and the institutional approaches to overcome these.

As far as the annual system is concerned, we have ample time to complete the curriculum within the time schedule allowed by the University, and the college calendar is made to fit that time plan. The semester system, however, does pose challenges in the completion of curriculum within stipulated time. To overcome this, special meeting of the departmental heads is held for mid-term review of the syllabus. Accordingly, extra classes/periods are arranged by the teachers if the need is felt.

2.3.11 How does the institute monitor and evaluate the quality of teaching-learning ?

To monitor and evaluate the quality of teaching-learning, the college adopts various procedural steps besides giving special incentives to keep the teachers motivated.

- Periodical meetings at departmental and college level are held to review the teaching plans.
- Feedback from the students is used by the teachers for self-improvement. If required, the teaching pattern is altered to a more innovative and intensive method.
- Results are evaluated at the end of the session according to the pass percentage of the University. These reports help the teachers in self-assessment.
- Results of individual teachers are one of the criteria for ACRs.
- Financial incentives, like annual increments are also linked to the academic performance of the faculty.

- The teachers are encouraged to further expand their knowledge base by writing research papers and by participating in seminars and conferences etc. The college administration takes an evaluative view of the papers written or published.
- On the basis of the latest guidelines of the UGC, teachers are encouraged to do the needful for securing API score. Grades and scales are granted to them according to PBAS.
- The college management has adopted API scores for promotion to higher grades for those teachers whose promotion fell due after August, 2013.

2.4 Teacher Quality

2.4.1 Provide the following details and elaborate on the strategies adopted by the college in planning and management (recruitment and retention) of its human resource (qualified and competent teachers) to meet the changing requirements of the curriculum.

The college administration recommends the number of the new teachers required or those to be continued in the next session. The recruitment and retention of its human resource is then planned and managed by the centralized independent autonomous authority, Directorate of Education, SGPC. This educational and managerial body advertises all the posts in the newspapers. The qualified teachers are shortlisted and called for interview. They are selected after intensive and rigorous interview.

Once recruited through the laid down process, as per the policy of the Directorate of Education, they are called for the next session without having to go through the interview. This privilege is granted to only those whose work and conduct have been satisfactory and have received positive feedback from the students.

2.4.2 How does the institution cope with the growing demand/scarcity of qualified senior faculty to teach new programmes/modern areas (emerging areas) of study being introduced (Biotechnology, IT, Bioinformatics etc.) ? Provide details on the efforts made by the institution in this direction and the outcome during the last three years.

The institution has developed a panel of specialized teachers who are invited periodically to supplement teaching of those subjects and programmes where senior faculty members are not available. For frontier areas which require external help we organize invited talks by eminent faculty.

Well qualified teachers have been hired to teach M.Sc.-IT, PGDCA, BCA etc. Teachers with Doctorate are preferred for teaching post graduate courses. Guest lectures, workshops and seminars are organized to fill in the knowledge gaps.

We had organized talks by a host of eminent teachers and academic experts on a range of topics to augment the teaching and learning of emerging areas during the past three years.

All these efforts made by the institution have helped in improving results, in boosting up students confidence level, and in making them more employable in the job market.

2.4.3 Providing details on staff development programmes during the last four years elaborate on the strategies adopted by the institution in enhancing the teacher quality ?

2.4.4 What policies/systems are in place to recharge teachers ? (e.g. providing research grants, study leave, support for research and academic publications, teaching experience in other national institutions and specialized programmes/industrial engagement etc.)

Regulatory bodies such as ICSSR, UGC, BST provide such grants to the teachers and to the college for faculty development programmes. The college availed grants during the session 2011-12, 2013-14 for a conference organized by the department of Economics – "Punjab Economy at Crossroads : A way Ahead" - and a seminar by Political Science department – "Emerging Trends in Punjab Politics Since 1997". Even though no research grants or financial support are directly distributed to the faculty, encouragement and support occur in the following areas :

- The college administration encourages the teachers to apply for projects/research to the regulatory bodies.
- Teachers are also encouraged to publish books on different subjects.
- The faculty is encouraged to attend specialized programmes conducted by different institutions.
- There is a provision of study leave for the teachers after due approval by the college management.
- Teachers are allowed the free use of infrastructural facilities for preparing research projects.

2.4.5 Give the number of faculty who received awards/recognition at the state, national and international level state, national and international level for excellence in teaching during the last four years. Enunciate how the institutional culture and environment contributed to such performance/achievement of the faculty.

Awards/recognition won by the faculty

Sr. No.	Name of Faculty	Department	Name of Award	Agency	Year
1	Dr. Jasvir Singh	Punjabi	Best Programme Officer	Punjabi University, Patiala	2013-14
2	Prof. Mohammad Anwar	Commerce	Best Programme Officer	Punjabi University, Patiala	2013-14

2.4.6 Has the institution introduced evaluation of teachers by the students and external peers ? If yes, how is the evaluation used for improving the quality of the teaching-learning process ?

Yes, an evaluation system has been framed which is based on students' feedback system and the annual ACRs of the teachers.

Students of the outgoing classes are asked to fill up the performa regarding the performance of the faculty. The facts collected from the peers' notes added to the ACRs and the students' feedback forms are scrutinized by the Principal, Vice-principal and senior staff members. Weak areas or shortcomings are communicated to the teachers and remedial measures are also taken in some of the cases.

2.5 Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 How does the institution ensure that the stakeholders of the institution especially students and faculty are aware of the evaluation process ?

The prescribed evaluation processes are included in the college prospectuses, and the students are supposed to read the college manual properly and thoroughly. In addition to this students are informed well in advance about the class tests, mid semester tests, house tests, semester/annual exams through notices, circulars and date-sheets. Teachers also disseminate the information during the class room teaching.

Similarly, the faculty is apprised of this process through staff meetings and the meetings of the Heads of Departments. Information regarding evaluation process is also passed on to the teachers via notices and circulars especially meant for the faculty

Other stakeholders, that is the parents, get to know of the evaluation process through PTS meetings and Progress Reports etc. Lecture shortage and MST results are conveyed to the parents by post as well. Parents are asked to keep in touch with the college office in order to learn about the progress and general behavior of their wards. Lecture shortage & MST results are conveyed to the parents by post as well.

2.5.2 What are the major evaluation reforms of the university that the institution has adopted and what are the reforms initiated by the institution on its own ?

Shifting of the examination pattern from Annual to Semester system is the major reform that the University has recently brought into practice as a part of the overall evaluation system. Reforms at the level of University also include introduction of internal assessment of UG students on the lines of PG classes and replacing the subjective with the objective form of question papers. The college has duly adopted this change in examination and evaluative system. Teaching strategies are formulated in accordance with the given University pattern.

The latest reform the University introduced in the area of evaluation is the provision for the students to examine the valued or marked answer books. The student can apply to the University through the Principal and get his/her grievances in the matter redressed.

At the level of the college, class tests, mid-term tests, special tests besides assignments, class performance and class attendance are also used as evaluative criteria. Regular class tests are combined with different innovative methods, such as subject quizzes, mock tests, mock viva voce examination etc. In this way the college has initiated above mentioned methods in addition to the evaluation system of the affiliating University.

2.5.3 How does the institution ensure effective implementation of the evaluation reforms of the university and those initiated by the institution on its own ?

Punjabi University, Patiala, has established various evaluation centres for expediting the declaration of results; our college is one of them. It has been a venue for a very efficient and effective evaluation centre of the University for the last five years.

The college takes various steps for the effective implementation of the evaluation reforms. The students as well as parents are informed of the evaluation process as soon as the classes start.

The college academic calendar and departmental teaching plans include all tests and exams which are held mandatory by the University. MSTs are conducted in a very systematic manner by the examination branch of college. This branch maintains all the records to be used for assessment and evaluation at the end of the semester.

2.5.4 Provide details on the formative and summative assessment approaches adopted to measure student achievement. Cite a few examples which have positively impacted the system.

At the level of the college, continuous and comprehensive assessment pattern is followed. Students are not evaluated on the basis of formative and summative assessment, because this pattern is not relevant as far as the University mechanism and norms are concerned. The college has adopted periodical and comprehensive assessment as per the requirement of the University through class tests, presentations, assignments, case studies etc. This comprehensive approach for assessment has remarkably impacted the performance and confidence level of the students. Results have improved and pass percentage has also increased visibly.

2.5.5 Detail on the significant improvements made in ensuring rigor and transparency in the internal assessment during the last four years and weightages assigned for the overall development of students (weightage for behavioral aspects, independent learning, communication skills etc.)

To ensure rigor and transparency in the internal assessment, conditions laid down by the University are strictly followed. We take extra care that internal assessments are transparent and are strictly in accordance with the University norms.

Performa for the weightages assigned at college level (Internal Assessment) : Attached Annexure No : V

2.5.6 What are the graduate attributes specified by the college/affiliating university ?
How does the college ensure the attainment of these by the students ?

There are a number of societies, associations and programmes which impart graduate attributes to the students by providing them a framework for engaging with the world.

National Service Scheme is a University sponsored programme which inculcates love for service, respect for fellow beings and responsibility towards society. The college has three active units of NSS comprising of boys and girls. NCC teaches discipline and nationalism while training the youth to be fearless and strong in the face of danger. A girls' unit of NCC is a recent addition to the college assets. The sports society of the college teaches love for fair play and the value of fitness. The religious society of the college looks after ethical and moral development of the students. Religious functions are celebrated with great fervor, especially the Martyrdom Day of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur, the ninth Guru whose name embellishes the very existence of this college.

Every month one period is dedicated to the collective prayer in the Gurudwara Sahib situated within the precincts of the college. Regular camps are held such as Blood Donation Camp, Youth Camp, long and short NSS Camps. Eminent scholars are invited to inform the students about graduate attributes. Through all these activities the college makes all out efforts to give that learning and understanding which is far beyond mere knowledge.

2.5.7 What are the mechanisms for redressal of grievances with reference to evaluation both at the college and University level ?

There exists a well-structured system of redressal at college and University level. The University has a mechanism for redressal of grievances regarding final examination. The candidates have to apply to the University for recounting and revaluation. Separate Examination cell has been created in the college under the convenership of the college Registrar and the Controller of examinations. Grievance of the students regarding the evaluation by college and University are submitted to the Examination Cell. The matters pertaining to college evaluation system/process are sorted out there at the earliest possible and to the satisfaction of the students. The issues related with the University evaluation system are forwarded to the Examination Branch of the University. Exclusive assistance on the part of the college office and teaching staff is readily available for the students to follow any matter at the level of the University. Thus grievances of the students regarding evaluation, revaluation or DMCs are passed on to the University through the college examination cell within the given time. Every care is taken by the examination branch to follow up the matters with the University till they are properly resolved.

2.6 Student performance and Learning Outcomes.

2.6.1 Does the college have clearly stated learning outcomes? If 'yes' give details on how the students and staff are made aware of these?

The prescribed or stated curricula for different courses have been designed in such a way that students get acquainted with basic as well as specialized information and expertise of a particular subject. Learning outcomes and objectives are clearly stated in the syllabus provided by the University. Copies of the syllabus are available for the students and the staff right from the beginning of the session. The syllabus structure for all the subjects/courses is printed in the college prospectuses as well.

2.6.2 Enumerate on how the institution monitors and communicates the progress and performance of students through the duration of the course/programme ? Provide an analysis of the students results/achievements and explain the difference, if any, and patterns of achievement across the programmes/courses offered.)

The college monitors the students' progress through class performance, class tests, mid semester tests, house tests and final examination. Their progress is communicated to them through awards and assessments. Award lists are displayed on the notice boards. Their performance, monitored through these various evaluative stages, is indicative of their level of study and effort. The progress reports are dispatched to the parents as well. Low scorers are warned through special notices and circulars. Slow learners are identified and extra efforts are made for them by the teachers. The complete record of the students' performance is maintained by the Examination Department of the college.

2.6.3 How are the teaching, learning and assessment strategies of the institution structured to facilitate the achievement of the intended learning outcomes ?

Teaching, learning and assessment strategies are a part of the curriculum provided by the University. The institution ensures complete adherence to those strategies so that the intended learning objectives can be achieved. Academic council of the college takes stock of the learning outcomes of the students at periodical intervals and corrective measures are adopted to remove the gaps, if any.

2.6.4 What are the measures/initiatives taken up by the institution to enhance the social and economic relevance (student placements, entrepreneurship, innovation and research aptitude developed among students etc.) of the course offered ?

- The college has exclusive guidance and placement cell which guides the students about job opportunities available in their particular branch of study.
- Special coaching classes are arranged to make the students aware of the social relevance of the course or area of knowledge being pursued by them. These special classes also explain to them the economic viability of the courses of their choice.
- Special lectures, seminars and workshops are arranged to develop innovating thinking and research aptitude among students.

The college is going to set up Research and Innovation Centre where the teachers and the students will volunteer themselves to introduce innovative practices in connection with different subjects which will enable them to sort out and search out the societal problems/issues. The focus of this centre will be on localized issues and the purpose of the research will be to trace out probable solutions to those problems.

2.6.5 How does the institution collect and analyze data on student performance and learning outcomes and use it for planning and overcoming barriers of learning?

The Examination Branch of the college and the Registrar's office compiles all the data on students' performance and learning outcomes. The results of all tests and examinations are compiled and analysed by the examination branch. Record of every student's performance is maintained. Teachers use the compiled result to compare the student's performance and also to judge the overall attitude. The analysis conducted by the examination cell is discussed by the college advisory/academic council and problems, if any, are looked into.

2.6.6 How does the institution monitor and ensure the achievement of learning outcomes ?

Monitoring is done through class performance, class tests, mid-semester tests, house tests and semester examinations. To ensure the achievement of learning outcomes, the progression of a student from test to test is closely observed. Various evaluative stages are taken to be as yardsticks for measuring efforts and outcome.

Teachers pay special attention to see that the student also possesses requisite soft skills to translate the learning outcomes into achievements. The students are counselled and helped to chisel their learning, grasping and writing skills so that their efforts bring desired results.

2.6.7 Does the institution and individual teachers use assessment/evaluation outcomes as an indicator for evaluating student performance, achievement of learning objectives and planning ? If 'yes' provide details on the process and cite a few examples.

Yes, individual teachers use assessment/evaluation outcomes to determine and plan their further teaching strategies. Teachers decide about the need for extra or special classes using the evaluation outcomes as an indicator. Students are segmented according to their performance level, and remedial courses or special coaching classes are arranged to pull up the level of the low scorers. Previously Remedial Courses have been held in the areas of Science, Commerce and Maths.

Any other relevant information regarding Teaching-Learning and Evaluation which the college would like to include.

- Providing quality education and overall development is the major focus of the institution. Our actual mission is not only to give subject based knowledge but to shape the students as better citizens.
- In addition to the routine matters of curriculum, student are told about discipline, morality, hygiene, cleanliness. Outcome of this exercise is very positive. It is well appreciated by the students and parents alike.

- IT content in teaching, learning and evaluation has increased considerably. Use of internet as a regular component of teaching is a significant innovation that the college has initiated in teaching area.
- Language Lab for language teaching has improved the standard of curriculum transaction considerably.
- We are not making the students literate only, but we're educating the students. Tutorial system, functioning of clubs and societies, practices like teaching plans and academic calendar have been made essential part of the college system. We have a number of societies functioning in the college which are instrumental in nourishing the extra-curricular talents of the students. Environment society, English Literary Society, Science club, Blood Donors' Association, Sahit sabha, Folk Dance and Music Society, Sports Society etc. are some of these bodies. Competitions are arranged at the level of the societies or on departmental basis and successful students are given prizes by the college. The cultural activities are coordinated by the Folk Dance and Music Society and the sports events by the Sports Society. Based upon their performance in those events, teams are sent for competitions organized by the University.

Criterion III: Research, Consultancy and Extension

Criterion – III : Research, Consultancy and Extension

3.1 Promotion of Research

3.1.1 Does the institution have recognized research centre/s of the affiliating University or any other agency/organization ?

No, there is no provision of a recognized research centre in the college, but the college is going to establish its own Research and Innovation Centre as stated in 2.6.4.. However, the university has allowed the faculty to supervise the students for M.Phil. and Ph.D. Five members of the faculty are supervising students for Punjabi University, Patiala and Punjab Technical University.

3.1.2 Does the institution have a research committee to monitor and address the issues of research ? If so, what is its composition ? Mention a few recommendations made by the committee for implementation and their impact ?

Yes, the college has a research committee which is entrusted with the responsibility of promoting the research activities of the teachers and students. It has representation from major departments and one senior member functions as the convener. The research committee has been constituted with the following objectives :

- To promote the research aptitude of students
- To facilitate research achievements
- To promote interdisciplinary research

It has been increasingly felt that research temperament needs to be cultivated among students and teachers in order to promote research and innovation. The college research committee has made some recommendations to this effect :

- Every teacher must submit one paper related to course/subject to the Head of the Department during a term.
- A series of workshops on research methodology to be conducted in the college for the teachers.
- Students of each final class should be divided into smaller groups, and every week each group should submit a summary of the books consulted in the library.
- As an assignment work, students should be asked to submit uploaded notes related to their class work at the end of every month.

The college administration has taken a serious note of these recommendations. A library period has been included in the main timetable to gently propel the students towards research and in-depth study. During the semesters the students are given short-term research projects to be completed within specified period of time. Local research issues are preferred for such projects. Some of the classes also have minor projects as part of their curriculum and teachers are assigned to supervise their research projects. This exercise has improved research orientation and helped to create research atmosphere.

3.1.3 What are the measures taken by the institution to facilitate smooth progress and implementation of research schemes/projects ?

Teachers are encouraged to prepare projects. A few teachers have submitted the proposals of their minor and major projects to BST and UGC. Teachers have total autonomy in the choice of their subjects/topics and in the approach that they want to take. The infrastructure of the college such as labs, library, internet, laptops, printers etc., are available to them free of cost and for 24 hours. The college also takes a compassionate view of the teachers involved in research and allows such facilities as time-off, reduced teaching load and special leave etc. In no way, and at no level, the college administration or management has ever posed any hindrance in the fulfilment of an investigator's aims or in the completion of his/her work. The college will do everything to ensure smooth progress of research projects. The college governing body, SGPC, Amritsar, has specially created research fund to partially finance the research projects. Many faculty members of the college have attended national and international conferences in India and two faculty members have attended conferences in USA, Canada and China

3.1.4 What are the efforts made by the institution in developing scientific temper and research culture and aptitude among students ?

The institution gives high priority to the development of a research culture in students. Seminars and workshops are organized by all departments in which researchers from different fields introduce the students to the frontier areas of research in their respective disciplines. Students are being motivated and encouraged to be more objective and analytical in their observations.

With the setting up of Research and Innovation centre, teachers will be encouraged to undertake research projects. Efforts are afoot to involve students in small projects. In addition to the promotion of faculty research, the research cell organizes programmes for the development of a research culture among students. Most of the PG programmes have research project in the final semester, which the college utilizes for the promotion of student based research.

Students are involved in science exhibitions and science quizzes. Visits to science museums, zoological parks and botanical gardens are also aimed at giving the students exposure and kindling the spark of research in them. Activities such as preparing models and charts to explain certain concepts also help to develop analytical aptitude in them.

Efforts are being made to involve teachers in research by creating awareness among them for the need to contribute significantly towards community. The research cell is actively engaged in the promotion of faculty as well as students' research. It works to coordinate the research activities and to see that the research findings reach maximum students and teachers. The college has set up an elaborate system of LAN and 8mbps leased line internet facility and these are also available to the researchers without any restriction.

Research and Innovation Centre is involving the students to take up those projects which concern themselves with major problems faced by the society. The members of the centre visit the surrounding areas to pinpoint major issues such as drugs, female foeticide, agricultural potential, soil testing etc. The focus is to study immediate problems faced by the society and the objectives are to trace out the solutions to those problems.

3.2 Resource Mobilization for Research

3.2.1 What percentage of the total budget is earmarked for research ? Give details of major heads of expenditure, financial allocation and actual utilization.

There is no specific amount appropriated for research during the preparation of the college budget. However, SGPC has set aside a budget of ten lakhs for the faculty members working in the colleges run by it. In addition of this, the college makes the payments of registration fee etc. for those wishing to attend seminars or conferences. Research grants can also be sought from such bodies as UGC, BST, ISSR etc. The college management is seriously thinking of making a research fund with the help of certain benevolent individuals and organizations.

3.2.2 Is there a provision in the institution to provide seed money to the faculty for research ? If so, specify the amount disbursed and the percentage of the faculty that has availed the facility in the last four years ?

Provision for providing seed money to the faculty for research is there, but none of the faculty members has applied for getting financial help during last four years.

3.2.3 What are the financial provisions made available to support student research projects by students ?

Financial provisions are available for the students in the form of certain funds such as Staff Fund, Red Cross Fund and the financial aid extended by some munificent individuals and NGOs. If a student comes with a need-based, suitable project, he/she will be provided with adequate funds.

3.2.4 How does the various departments/units/staff of the institute interact in undertaking inter-disciplinary research ? Cite examples of successful endeavours and challenges faced in organizing interdisciplinary research.

The college has constituted a Research Committee comprising of faculty members from different disciplines. Research projects of interdisciplinary nature are scrutinized by the Research Committee and finally selected proposals are forwarded to research bodies for research grants. That our endeavours will be successful is hoped for, because research at the college level is, comparatively speaking, a rather recently inducted area to the college system. Challenges are many as the students of this particular area are rather reluctant and wary of breaking new paths.

3.2.5 How does the institution ensure optimal use of various equipment and research facilities of the institution by its staff and students ?

Library, labs, internet, computers and other facilities are utilized by the students and the staff optimally. In case the facilities available are found to be insufficient, the researchers are directed to institutions/bodies sharing collaborations with the institution.

3.2.6 Has the institution received any special grant or finances from the industry or other beneficiary agency for developing research facility ? If 'yes' give details.

U.G.C. is the main body other than DPI, that gives developmental grants to the college. During 11th plan, special grant was received from UGC for developing science and other labs. In addition to this ICSSR and UGC have also given grants for organizing seminars. In all of U.G.C. grants, 10% is earmarked for research projects, but can be utilized for any of the purposes like equipment, infrastructure, books etc. Our management has also been quite generous at occasions and funds received from the management have been utilized to expand the research and infrastructural base.

No special grant has been received from any industry or other beneficiary agency.

3.2.7 Enumerate the support provided to the facility in securing research funds from various funding agencies, industry and other organizations. Provide details of ongoing and completed projects and grants received during the last four years.

3.3.2 What are the institutional strategies for planning, upgrading and creating infrastructural facilities to meet the needs of researchers especially in the new and emerging areas of research?

The college academic council reviews the developments taking place in research and the needs of the researchers. This is done in conjunction with the research committee. The research facilities available in different disciplines are scrutinized in the light of the minor or major proposed projects. Accordingly, planning for required upgradation is discussed and required equipment as well as items are shortlisted. The recommendations for new implements, equipment, books or journals for advanced study and research are forwarded to the Principal. After due sanctions, new additions are made to the resources already available in the college. Labs, library, computers and other sophisticated instruments are upgraded from time to time to keep them up-to-date. Internet speed is enhanced, Wi-Fi connectivity and Wi-Fi controls are streamlined whenever the need is felt. Two new science labs have been established : one in the department of Physics and one in the department of Chemistry. A piece of agricultural land has been acquired on lease for organic farming and floriculture. An orchard will be created in that patch of land. The college is planning to cultivate unused patches of land for varieties of cactus and other plants as an agriculture project.

3.3.3 Has the institution received any special grants or finances from the industry or other beneficiary agency for developing research facilities? If ‘yes’, what are the instruments/facilities created during the last four years.

No special grant has been received from any industry or beneficiary agency.

3.3.4 What are the research facilities made available to the students and research scholars outside the campus/other research laboratories?

The research laboratories available in the neighbouring regions are requisitioned for the utilization of the facilities by our students. For instance, depending upon the need-based research, the following institutions can be contacted for research facilities : Punjab University, Chandigarh; Sri Guru Granth Sahib University, Fatehgarh Sahib; Thapar University, Patiala, and Punjabi University, Patiala. The management committee of the college is running 35 colleges and one university which can be visited by the students of this college at any time.

3.3.5 Provide details on the library/information resource centre or any other facilities available specifically for the researchers?

The college library is a rich resource centre for the students and the faculty. It has more than 30,000 titles covering almost every subject. Many national as well as international journals, magazines and periodicals are available for the researchers. The library is fully computerized. The researchers can use the facilities of on-line study and e-journals. Free reprographic facilities are also available for the researchers. Besides, separate reference section has been created in the library where rare books and manuscripts are kept.

3.3.6 What are the collaborative research facilities developed/created by the research institutes in the college. For example, laboratories, library, instruments, computers, new technology etc.

All facilities have been created and developed by the college itself. The college management has always believed in investing in ultra modern and up-to-date infrastructure. Over the years, the college has expanded its infrastructural base to accommodate new courses and subjects. Help from other well-equipped institutions is sought only to use their guidance for developing or creating adequate facilities.

3.6 Extension Activities and Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR)

3.6.1 How does the institution promote institution-neighbourhood-community network and student engagement, contributing to good citizenship, service orientation and holistic development of students ?

Value-based education is the major focus of this institution. Apart from imparting basic knowledge and skill-based education, greater emphasis is laid on inculcating humane values in students to make them better citizens. Different clubs and societies engage the students, and their respective programmes and activities aim at the students' holistic development besides moulding them to be useful citizens. Following are the many ways in which the institution promotes student engagement in community network :

- NSS and NCC units provide service orientation to the students.
- Awareness rallies against social evils by the NSS department of the college.
- Blood donation camps.
- Monthly prayer gatherings to acquaint them with the spiritual side of life.
- Membership of Guru Gobind Singh Study Circle to further propel the students towards moral way of life.
- Not any religion but religious teachings are propagated.

- Orientation of students and staff for eco-friendly plantation drives and environmental preservation.
- Extension lectures on traffic rules, hygiene and cleanliness, drug abuse, right living, respect for authority, self-discipline etc.

- 'Nanni Chaan' society for protecting the girl child, for dealing with women related issues and women empowerment.

3.6.2 What is the institutional mechanism to track students' involvement in various social movements/activities which promote citizenship roles ?

All the students are members of different clubs and societies of the college. These clubs and societies encourage the students for active involvement in various social activities and also keep track of students' involvement by maintaining record of their activities during the session. For example, Red Cross society organized State level function dedicated to Bhai Ghanaiya Ji and students also participated in Red Cross Fair at Ropar. Similarly, Voters' Day was also celebrated in the college and students joined in to enhance their awareness about the use of voting right. Important religious days are also celebrated, especially the birth anniversary of Guru Nanak Dev Ji and the Martyrdom Day of Guru Teg Bahadur Ji. The purpose is to awaken among the students the spirit of service, sharing, sacrifice and equality. Seasonal festivals, like Lohri which symbolize harmony and 'joie de vivre', are celebrated by students and the staff collectively.

This institutional mechanism is communicated to the students through information pasted in noticeboards. College prospectuses contain the necessary information about clubs and societies working in the college. Students are also motivated and encouraged by special lectures and seminars. In this way efforts are done to make students better citizens and socially responsible.

3.6.3 How does the institution solicit stakeholder perception on the overall performance and quality of the institution ?

Feedback is collected from the reputed personages of society, Alumni Association, PTS Association. Eminent persons from the neighbouring areas are invited to most of the functions. 3.6.5 How does the institution promote the participation of students and faculty in extension activities including participation in NSS, NCC, YRC and other National/International agencies ?

Extension activities are an essential part of the academic calendar of the college. These extension activities, carried out by different clubs and societies, continue during the entire session parallel to the regular teaching and learning schedule.

For example, NSS department holds one day camps a number of times along with seven day long camp during autumn or winter break. Likewise, the parades and training sessions of NCC are a regular feature of the college scenario. The college has NCC units of army. In addition to regular parades, the cadets take part in special parades like Republic Day parade and leadership training camps. NCC cadets frequently participate in other extension activities and functions, especially while receiving, welcoming and escorting the Chief Guest. Students are involved in the celebration of National Education day, Environment day, Literacy day by participating in essay-writing competitions, Elocution contests and ppt presentations.

The faculty plans and makes arrangement for these programmes. The teachers motivate the students to participate in national drives. Recently, students and the faculty enthusiastically joined in the 'Swachh Bharat Campaign'. Students are educated regarding the benefits of such activities, for the participations in such activities not only makes them good citizens but also helps them in securing jobs and admission in higher courses.

3.6.6 Give details on social surveys, research or extension work (if any) undertaken by the college to ensure social justice and empower students from under-privileged and vulnerable sections of society ?

The college believes in the ideals of equality and secularism. Every care is taken that the students learn to be impartial citizens, free from any kind of social or economic biases. All students are treated equally irrespective of the social class they come from. Students coming from under privileged section are brought into the fold as soon as they take admission. There is no question of any kind of discrimination within the college premises. Class based surveys are conducted once the admission process is over to find out the needy or underprivileged students. Also, seminars and special lectures are conducted by the faculty to allay their fears and dissipate any feeling of un-belongingness or of being underprivileged and deprived in any sense. Without any segmenting the students are educated about social injustices in tutorial classes and through the activities of various societies and clubs. About 20 or so students coming from vulnerable sections of society are identified. Financial help is provided by the college and the staff to such students. Special lectures are arranged for such students to make them aware of their rights ; for example, the scholarships available to them and the college support in the form of text books etc. Study material, by way of help books and texts, is provided to them by the faculty to compensate their lack of sufficient funds.

3.6.7 Reflecting on objectives and expected outcomes of the extension activities organized by the institution, comment on how they complement students' academic learning experience and specify the values and skills inculcated.

Providing wholesome education and producing service oriented good citizens are the objectives and expected outcomes of the extension activities organized by the institution. Different extension activities provide seed ground for cultivating values like comradeship, tolerance, discipline and sportsman spirit.

Without doubt, the students' involvement in NSS, NCC, religious activities complement their academic learning process because they complete the actual purpose of education, which is to become an intelligent and sensitive individual who is a messenger of hope and good will in society/community. Students' engagement with socially relevant activities develops social responsibility in them while bringing about various attitudinal changes. They learn team-spirit, service, humanity, self-discipline, harmony and love for their environment and work. In addition to these, NCC, NSS etc. improve confidence level, refine their sense of social responsibility, develop leadership qualities and prepare them to manage stage and conduct programmes. In other words, these activities improve their communication and social skills while enhancing their awareness level.

3.6.8 How does the institution ensure the involvement of the community in its reach out activities and contribute to the community development ? Detail on the initiatives of the institution that encourage community participation in its activities.

The institution is receiving active support and cooperation of the surrounding community in its activities. The college PTA and Alumni which are a cross section of the local and surrounding communities involve themselves in almost all activities of the college directly or indirectly. Awareness rallies are taken out about burning social issues, such as dowry menace/deaths, female foeticide, drug abuse, cleanliness drive, save environment/trees etc. During the literacy drive, NSS activists visit nearby villages regularly and teach middle-aged and old men and women to write their names so that they may get rid of using thumb impression on documents. A short while ago the Police Department of the town conducted seminars for the students against Drug Addiction and about Traffic rules and regulations. Media persons of the area conducted a workshop as to the need to choose right profession.

Local persons are invited as special guests on Education day and Environment day etc. Important persons of the surrounding community are invited to all the functions of the college.

3.6.9 Give details on the constructive relationships forged (if any) with other institutions of the locality for working on various outreach and extension activities.

The college maintains constructive relationships with other institutions of the area.

- Students of our college participate in various inter college competitions held in neighbouring colleges. Likewise, the students from other colleges are invited to come and participate whenever an intercollege competition is organized in the college.
- Students and teachers invariably go to attend workshops, seminars, exhibitions etc. in sister institutions of the college (i.e. colleges under the control of the same management)
- Invitations are sent to the Principals of all neighbouring college for programmes or functions of a general nature.
- Quiz competitions are organized among the colleges of the locality. School students are sometimes also involved to give them a feel of the college infrastructure and atmosphere. Recently (in Nov 2014) Inter School Competition was organized by the Commerce faculty of the college. It received a very encouraging response.
- National integration camps, sponsored by Punjabi University, Patiala, are organized in the college, during which students from not only nearby colleges but from neighbouring states also participate and work collectively towards national harmony and integration. Banks, hospitals and NGOs like Rotary Club, Red Cross Society sponsor Blood Donation Camps and Tree Plantation Drives etc.

Local Gurudwaras extend full help and support to the college during functions of small and large nature. The college always remembers with love the active participation of Takhat Sri Kesh Garh Sahib in providing Community Kitchen Services (Langar) to the college whenever the need arises. The Local Gurudwara provides lodgings as well for the visiting teams during National Championships.

The supportive relationship with various academic staff colleges and University departments has ensured the periodic and timely implementation of staff training programmes (Refresher Courses, Orientation courses etc.) Extension and student placement are the areas where collaborations have benefitted the college extensively.

The career guidance and placement cell of the college is the agency that links the institution with placement agencies. Some students trained in conventional courses have difficulties in meeting all the requirements of modern job market. To fill this gap the college is collaborating with different agencies that work in the area of student placements. Seminars, workshops, vacancy information and placement drives are organized by these agencies.

Introduction of new courses and subjects has become possible due to the collaboration and support of Punjabi University, Patiala

During the session 2014-15, following courses have been introduced in this college :

M.A. in English and Hindi, M.Sc. in Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics, Music (Vocal) and Fine arts as subject options for under graduate (Arts), students and an additional unit for Physical Education.

There is a grievance redressal cell in the college which attends to the queries and grievances by the stakeholders. As and when the complaints are received they are resolved immediately. In some particular cases, special committees are formed to resolve the matter. All the complaints and grievances are analysed by the college advisory council and they are solved effectively to the satisfaction of all the stakeholders involved.

Yes, the institution gives high priority to the collection of feedback and the students' feedback responses are duly taken into account. We have two mechanisms for institutional feedback. One is a programmed feedback collection from students of final year classes towards the end of a course. The other is the feedback collected from the students at random, during tutorial classes, during PTS meetings or at the year end. The institution responds immediately by attending to the complaints raised by the students and resolve them case by case. If the issue underneath is a common or general one, a face-to-face meeting is conducted with the students to get to the crux of the matter and a decision is taken by the administrative bodies of the college. The suggestions are accepted and implemented to improve the system. The academic part of the demands that can be met by the departments concerned are solved at that level itself. Anything that requires the attention of the Principal is brought to his notice and efforts for solution are initiated from the level of the Principal.

6.3 Faculty Empowerment Strategies

6.3.1 What are the efforts made by the institution to enhance the professional development of its teaching and non-teaching staff ?

The college provides all support and encouragement to the teachers for enhancing their professional development. The teachers are given leave to attend seminars and conferences. They are allowed to go for Orientation or Refresher courses. They are also permitted to attend workshops and participate in training programmes. No overhead expenditure is collected from researchers for using the facilities in the college for research or project purposes.

On the similar pattern, workshops are conducted in the college for non-teaching staff to keep themselves abreast with the changing technology. They are also allowed leave to attend training programmes for enhancing their computer and professional abilities.

6.3.2 What are the strategies adopted by the institution for faculty empowerment through training, retraining and motivating the employees for the roles and responsibility they perform ?

For the healthy growth of an institution, it is very important for its employers to be highly motivated and involved in their roles and responsibilities. With a view to empowering the faculty the institution encourages them to develop ICT skills. The teachers are sent for compulsory training programmes and are also asked to participate in career promotional schemes. The motivational strategies for faculty include rewards and certificates of appreciation.

6.3.3 Provide details on the performance appraisal system of the staff to evaluate and ensure that information on multiple activities is appropriately captured and considered for better appraisal.

The present procedure of performance evaluation is through feedback collected from students and parents. The institution has three programmes for feedback collection :

1. Personal feedback collection by individual teachers.
2. Organized feedback collection by the institution
3. Feedback collection during tutorials and PTS meetings

The first type of feedback collection is optional and is practiced by some teachers and some departments. The questionnaire prepared by the teacher or the department is circulated among the students and the responses are collected. The data generated is used for the self-improvement of the teacher or the department. The second type of feedback collection is more common and it covers all the different aspects of the institution and generates a comprehensive data bank that is used for planning the activities. The information drawn from the tutorial classes or from the parents during PTS meeting also provide important data for institutional planning. The results of evaluation are communicated to the person concerned and also discussed in general bodies like college council, IQAC etc. The periodic review meetings of the academic committee are in fact a peer review as far as teaching is concerned.

The self-appraisal of the faculty is collected periodically for matters regarding their career advancement. To evaluate the conduct and performance of the faculty, ACRs have been created. On the basis of these reports, the teachers are duly graded.

6.3.4 What is the outcome of the review of the performance appraisal reports by the management and the major decisions taken ? How are they communicated to the appropriate stake holders ?

The performance appraisal reports, which include ACRs and the students' feedback, are reviewed by the management and on the basis of the given grade, financial incentives of the employees are decided. For example, annual increments and other incentives are based on the performance appraisal report.

The Principal and Vice-Principal of the college conduct a review of teachers' performance before the end of the academic year. During the review the staff are advised to improve or change their style of teaching, behavior etc. If any teacher is not found suitable, the Principal puts their status before the management and a decision is taken as to whether the concerned person will be retained/continued during the next session.

6.3.5 What are the welfare schemes available for teaching and non-teaching staff ? What percentage of staff have availed the benefit of such schemes in the last four years ?

A college can be a creative and happening place only if the employees are satisfied. The college administration has put forth several incentives for the teaching and non-teaching staff. These measures address the felt needs of the college community and are a means of appreciating the contribution of the teaching and non-teaching faculty.

A list of these incentives is given below :

The college has constituted financial advisory committee under the chairmanship of the Principal. Senior faculty members and bursar are the members of the financial committee. The committee prepares the budget of the institution every year, and the total revenue and expenditure to be incurred during the year are planned in the periodical meetings of the committee :

The total revenue is categorized into three major segments :

1. State government grants for salaries of the staff covered under 95% grant in aid scheme.
2. Revenue from fees and funds.

3. Financial aid from the management of the college.

The major expenditure includes salaries of the staff and developmental or expansion expenditure. The financial resources of the institution are kept in the mind while planning for development and other expenditures.

6.4.2 What are the institutional mechanisms for internal and external audit ? When was the last audit done and what are the major audit objections. Provide the details on compliance.

The college managing body, Shiromani Gurudwara Prabandhak Committee (Amritsar), has appointed an internal auditor for the audit of the accounts of all the institutions governed by it. A team of the internal auditors visits the institution at the end of every month and examines the account books of all the heads of income and expenditure.

At the end of the year, the compiled accounts are submitted to the external auditor of the institution who prepares the income/expenditure details and the balance sheet of income and expenditure.

6.4.3 What are the major sources of institutional receipts/funding and how is the deficit managed ? Provide audited income and expenditure statement of academic and administrative activities of the previous four years and the reserve fund/corpus available with institutions, if any.

d. How do students and alumni contribute to the effective functioning of the IQAC ?

The office bearers of the alumni association are invited to the IQAC meetings. They give suggestions about the aspects of the college which require improvement. Sometimes they also help in placements and provide financial aid to the students or college in the form of donations. Students are invited to the IQAC meetings as and when the need is felt. So far their role has been of participatory nature.

e. How does the IQAC communicate and engage staff from different constituents of the institution ?

- All information is communicated to staff and students by way of circulars and notices.

- All the members of the staff are engaged, in different capacities, in different activities and they work for maintaining quality in every sphere.

6.5.2 Does the institution have an integrated framework for Quality assurance of the academic and administrative activities ? If 'yes', give details on its operationalization.

Quality assessment of an educational institution requires the evaluation of a number of parameters, such as the quality of students it produces, quality of services it provides, quality and quantum of the academic and intellectual output of the faculty and the contribution of the institution to the society. The quality of education imparted by an institution depends upon many factors. Competency and availability of teachers, infrastructure, nature of programmes and learning environment in the institution are important among them. The institution has formed IQAC with members of staff, students, management, alumni and public representatives. It conducts meetings every month under the chairmanship of the Principal, the Vice Principal acts as its coordinator and senior faculty as the members. These members decide on new methodologies and put them on table for discussions. After this the initiative is passed by all and it takes the form of office order. Every department has one IQAC member who informs the rest of the department about the meetings of the cell.

The IQAC has the following members on its panel :

3. Effective co-curricular programmes
4. Promotion of extra-curricular activities
5. Programmes based on human values
6. Schemes for faculty development
7. Result-oriented extension programmes
8. Comprehensive planning and review

6.5.3 Does the institution provide training to its staff for effective implementation of the Quality assurance procedures ? If 'yes' give details enumerating its impact ?

Teachers hold the prime role in deciding the quality of education imparted. The institution is giving active support for the career advancement of teachers by providing ample opportunities to the staff members for attending training programmes, workshops, seminars and conferences. The faculty members are given special leave to attend orientation courses or refresher courses. An orientation programme is organized in the campus at the beginning of the session for acclimatizing the freshly appointed faculty members. This short course enables the teachers to get familiar with the system by interacting with the Principal, senior faculty and experts from other institutions. Training workshops are also arranged for new teachers of the college. In addition to these, regular meetings are held with the staff to improve their performance and class dealing.

6.5.4 Does the institution undertake Academic Audit or other external review of the academic provisions ? If 'yes', how are the outcomes used to improve the institutional activities ?

Yes, the institution undertakes academic audit through the top level administration. Special staff meetings are held to review the results and to raise academic standards wherever required. During the session/semester, departmental and common staff meetings are convened by the Principal, in which the performance of the teachers is reviewed and necessary remedial actions are taken in those cases where it is not up to the mark.

6.5.5 How are the internal quality assurance mechanisms aligned with the requirement of the relevant external quality assurance agencies/regulatory authorities ?

The main regulatory bodies affecting the college working are Punjabi University, Patiala, State Government, UGC and the college management. All internal quality policies are made in conformity with the guidelines laid down by the regulatory bodies. Efforts are made to follow the guidelines in letter and spirit so that quality education can be assured.

6.5.6 What institutional mechanisms are in place to continuously review the teaching-learning process ? Give details of its structure, methodologies of operation and outcome ?

For the proper review of the teaching learning process, the method of examining the students through various modes is followed. Proper methodology is adopted for house tests and mid-semester tests etc. The assessment pattern is linked with the class tests, mid-semester tests, assignments, class work and class attendance, and this has helped in improving the results of the students every year. Besides, at the end of the academic year students are given feedback questionnaire. Many parents remain in constant touch with the teachers and make regular enquiries regarding the performance or betterment of their wards.

6.5.7 How does the institution communicate its quality assurance policies, mechanisms and outcomes to the various internal and external stakeholders ?

Each and every information regarding the college activities, such as timetable schedule, fee schedule, exam dates, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, competitions etc., is displayed through college website and notice boards. A pictorial view of the students' achievements, the college functions and other significant happenings is displayed on the digital screen, as well. The performance of the students is conveyed to the students and parents through their progress reports, through PTS meetings and through interaction with parents at individual level. The Principal communicates the policies through staff meetings, meetings with the HODs and his personal meetings with the management.

Any other relevant information regarding Governance, Leadership and Management which the college would like to include.

The college management (SGPC, Amritsar) is a huge body running about 72 schools and 45 colleges with an annual budget of Rs. 905 crores. The management is committed to imparting quality education and ameliorating the standards of the masses by spreading the light of knowledge and skill development.

All the educational affairs and policies are being looked after by a centralized body : Directorate of Education. The formulation of the Directorate, headed generally by eminent educationists, has helped in streamlining and expediting the procedures so as to provide a sound governance to educational institutions. Consequently, the approvals of proposals, sanctions of projects involving finances and appointments etc. are very smooth and fast. Our Management is known to have an employee-friendly attitude and proves to be better paymaster as compared to other privately managed institutes of the state.

The college has instructed all the departments to take care of the students' grievances and help them by redressing their problems and difficulties at the earliest.

A suggestion box is placed near the Principal's office for the students. They can communicate their views on an anonymous basis or in their own name. The college is open to suggestions with an eye to improve the functioning and enhance the quality of teaching-learning process.

Criterion VII: Innovations and Best Practices

Criterion VII : Innovations and Best Practices

7.1 Environment Consciousness

7.1.1 Does the institute conduct a Green Audit of its campus and facilities ?

Yes, a Green Committee has been constituted to make the campus eco-friendly and to review the landscaping needs of the college. That committee examines the issues related to environment facility. It has members from students, staff and non-teaching staff. Gardeners of the college are especially included in this committee. The committee ensures

- awareness among the students about the environment issues
- plantation drives to give maximum possible green cover to the institute
- beautification and cleanliness of the campus
- landscaping and other matters like natural resources conservation etc.

The Green Committee periodically reviews the efforts to preserve the environment.

This committee also ensures the celebration of 'Vanmahotsava' and Environment Day.

7.1.2 What are the initiatives taken by the college to make the campus eco-friendly ?

The institution specifically takes the following initiatives in this regard :

- Energy Conservation
 - Students and staff are expressly and employably given the information regarding minimum use of electricity and minimum wastage of water.
 - Another step towards conserving energy has been the replacement of bulbs and tubes with CFL. The college is in the process of gradually replacing CFL with LED.
- Plantation
 - Plantation of saplings is part and parcel of the Environment Day celebrations. The celebration of Vanmahotsav during NSS activities is also used as an occasion for plantation of trees.
 - Distribution of saplings to the general public is also taken up by the students and the faculty of the college.
 - The birthday of Sri Guru Har Rai Ji (the 7th Guru of the Sikhs) is celebrated at a large scale and with great fervour as Environment Day. As per the directions of our management (SGPC, Sri Amritsar), this day is marked as World Sikh Environment Day and it is mandatory for all the educational institutions under the management to celebrate it as such.

- Campus cleanliness
 - Campus cleanliness drive is taken up by students during N.S.S. activities. Physical Education department of the college also involves the students in the cleanliness drive prior to the functions and special programmes. ‘Swachh Bharat’ movement has been implemented in letter and spirit in this institution. The hoardings of that campaign have been placed at different strategic locations of the college for sensitizing the students about the importance of clean surroundings.
- E-waste management
 - E-waste material, such as scratched CDs and DVDs, out-of-order keyboards and mouses, waste pen-drives and hard drives are disposed off to the waste dealers. Some items, such as drum units and toners, are returned to the company when they become useless. Some useless cartridges, RAMs, and circuit boards etc are disposed off as per the instructions of the manual accompanying them.

7.2 Innovations

7.2.1 Give details of innovations introduced during the last four years which have created a positive impact on the functioning of the college.

- Remedial teaching is an important technique we are using to support the below average students. We identify the target students after our first examination (MST) which is conducted in the month of September. The students who score below the average are grouped together and remedial teaching is arranged for their benefit. We have two programmes for this. One is peer teaching. The other includes special classes conducted outside normal teaching or on holidays by the faculty.
- Feedback collection is an important means for ensuring quality parameters. Students take care to enlist their true opinion during the feedback sessions.
- The parents-teachers-student meetings also help a lot in keeping up the quality standards through the associated components of feedbacks and discussions.
- In order to cultivate human values among students, every first day of the month is celebrated in the Gurudwara Sahib of the college. Lectures on moral education are organized by the college faculty as well as by external experts.

- Tutorial groups are formed as soon as the classes have started and tutorial classes are held once a month. Two senior faculty members are appointed as senior tutors for boys and girls.
- For improving the skill and efficiency of our students we have three programmes for our students.
 1. Computer literacy programme
 2. Add on course of spoken English
 3. Training for competitive examinations

In order to improve the communication skills, fully equipped Language Lab has been established.

- Transportation to facilitate the daily commuting of the girl students from the nearby villages has been arranged by the college.
- Child care center has been introduced in the campus for the lady staff working in the college. It provides all play-way methods for the kids and resting facilities for the babies
- Career guidance cell has been introduced to help the students plan their future.

7.3 Best Practices

7.3.1 Elaborate on any two best practices as per the annexed format which have contributed to the achievement of the Institutional Objectives and/or contributed to the Quality improvement of the core activities of the college.

Best Practice – I

1. Title of the Practice : Moral and Ethical Education of the Students

2. Goal

Our actual mission is not only to give subject-based knowledge but to shape the students as noble individuals and better citizens. Keeping this in view, providing quality education that involves overall development is the major focus of the institution. No doubt this institution provides time relevant knowledge, but life-nurturing values have also not been ignored.

The college recognizes the importance of imparting wholesome education as will transform the youth into mentally enlightened, morally upright and enterprising individuals who will have the confidence and skills to follow the right path and to hold their head high in society. This can be possible through right thinking which springs from right learning and which translates into right action.

3. The Context

It has been increasingly felt that in the hurry to accumulate knowledge, students drift away from life-sustaining values and give themselves up to dejection and frustration whenever their high, and sometimes unreasonable, expectations are not met. Dealing with boys and girls collectively and keeping under check the gender factor can in itself be quite challenging, especially when 75% of the students come from a background where restrictions are many and awareness is entirely lacking. Moreover, certain alarming tendencies have been found prevalent among the students such as dependence upon drugs and excessive indulgence in modern electronic devices. All these factors erode the value system while distracting and diverting them from the path of knowledge.

Hence, the need to remind the students of such values as self-restraint, compassion, integrity, honour, responsibility, respect and fairness. Students need to understand that the secret of success consists not only in developing skills to become more employable but in developing a balanced personality that can undergo trials and tribulations with equanimity while serving the humanity in one's individual capacity.

4. The Practice

Education, in totality, should cultivate right value system. Our college is in the vicinity of Sri Anandpur Sahib, a holy city renowned for being the birth place of the Khalsa. The college has been established to commemorate the supreme sacrifice made by the Ninth Guru Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Sahib, for religious freedom and human rights. These facts put all the onus on us to nurture noble traditions and value system. The college is, therefore, devoted to impart moral and ethical education to the students to make them useful citizens.

Education changes and modifies our behavior; moral and ethical education ennobles our conduct. Our vision – "Shubh Karman te Kabhun Na Taron" – also emphasizes virtuous conduct.

Our students celebrate 'Sangrand', the monthly religious congregation wherein some scholar of repute is invited to enlighten the students about sterling moral values. Every month one period is kept aside for this when students and staff gather in the college 'Gurudwara Sahib' and join in the prayers. Hymns are recited followed by the Principal's address about right living and high thinking.

Students are encouraged to write 'Thought of the Day' on a strategically placed notice board. Each day up to five sentences of wisdom can be displayed on the notice board. Whenever possible, the same thoughts are also displayed on the Digital board of the college.

The entire faculty uses tutorial classes to inform the students about the value of decent behaviour, peaceful co-existence and respect for authority.

The college has Religious Studies as one of the subject options for undergraduate classes. It was started about 17 years ago because of its strong moral and ethical underpinning.

Girl students of all the undergraduate courses are collectively addressed by the senior female faculty in the beginning of the session. They are informed of the measures that they can take to avoid any situation that might result in eve-teasing. For example, they are told about the necessity to follow decent dress code and practise appropriate demeanor suitable for co-ed institution. This interaction raises their level of awareness and instils confidence in them.

Special programmes are organized and scholars are invited to interact with the students at large about the issues that concern their general behaviour and overall personality.

Although the college makes lots of efforts to involve all the students in its drive to include moral and ethical education in its academic structure, we do come across hostile and escapist attitude on the part of a section of boys. Shortage of time is another constraint that we face in the implementation of this worthy practice. The syllabus compulsions and the demands of academic calendar do not allow as much time as we would like to devote to this noble aspect.

5. Evidence of Success

Stress on moral and ethical education has created congenial atmosphere for teaching and learning. As a result there has hardly ever been any student strike or any serious incident of indiscipline. This has instilled trust and confidence in the hearts of the parents regarding the optimum working of the college. Sharp increase in the strength of the students is an ample evidence to this fact. Due to self-cultivated sense of responsibility and discipline, there has never been any incident of vandalism or tempering with the college infrastructure which is a common occurrence in colleges. Students show self-restraint in the use of college computers, internet facility and other gadgets. The instances of eve-teasing are almost negligible in the college campus. No case of ragging has ever been reported.

There is greater participation in sports and other extracurricular activities. Attendance in classes and in the college library has considerably increased. Noble traditions and judicious counselling by the teachers have gone a long way to inculcate positive and helpful attitude among the students. Many students donate their costly text books to the departmental libraries after they clear their exams. This generous attitude reveals their intrinsic virtue and social consciousness. Our students also organize several functions and excursions themselves. It generates a sense of responsibility, humility and co-operation required for useful citizens.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

As stated earlier, we do come across some problems in the implementation of this noble practice. Some students project indifference to the programmes meant for moral and ethical education. This is more true of a section of boys. For instance, not all of them would be part of the congregation during monthly prayers which are normally held in and around the Gurudwara premises. Likewise, some of them would choose to lurk around in the college grounds when some specially organized programme is taking place in the college auditorium. The compulsions of time table schedule and syllabus completion also act as constraints in implementing this practice more strenuously. Another limitation regarding its implementation is the dearth of space in the college hall, which makes it impossible to accommodate the entire student strength at one go for such educative programmes.

As far as the resources required are concerned, the implementation of this practice requires only the mobilization of human resources. Students involvement and teacher's inclination and persuasion are of prime importance in making this practice a meaningfully significant activity.

7. Notes

We would like to point out that in implementing this practice the purpose is not to push students towards any religious ideology but to make them better human beings. The sikh students are encouraged to follow the tenets of Sikhism, but students from other faiths are guided to be true to their religious beliefs. The college entirely subscribes to secularist mode of thinking irrespective of the fact that it is associated with a religiously significant place and managed by a premier Sikh religious body.

Best Practice – II

1. Title of the Practice : Community Service

2. Goal

We believe that service is the very purpose of life. If knowledge is power, community is strength and the will to do good is everything. Community service provides an opportunity to apply academic learning to real human needs and to make the knowledge gained usable and useful. The college feels that it has a responsibility to instil in young people the value of giving back to their community. In adopting community service as one of the core practices, the purpose has been to involve more and more students in socially meaningful activities. The idea has been to encourage volunteerism and to foster social consciousness about the needs of community.

3. The Context

In today's society people are busy and engrossed in themselves, so to help our young people experience community service as part of their education provides them with the chance to give back to the community that helped to raise them. Community service harnesses that tremendous youthful energy and unleashes it on causes students care for.

The college firmly believes that education should not only prepare students for their profession, but it should prepare them for their role as a societal being. Initially students participated in community service through the activities of NSS and NCC. The visible positive change that it brought to their performance and attitude made us think of adopting community service as one of the main activities.

Community service inspires the students to step outside their egocentric world and help others. It helps them in realizing their educational, social and developmental goals.

4. The Practice

Service and sacrifice for the sake of humanity is the message that marks the climatic point in the life of the Prophet (the Ninth Guru) whose good name the college partakes of. The college motto also states : "May I never refrain from righteous deeds." True to its tradition the institution has been a perennial source of encouragement to selfless social service through its various voluntary organizations.

Community service as a part of education means working for personal growth by blending interpersonal skills with civic engagement. It is the best way to inculcate a sense of responsibility in individuals. By participating in community service, students are introduced to good values and morals. Values such as humility, gratefulness, honesty, sincerity and respect are the important virtues that one can acquire from helping the community.

The college community service centre has been named after Bhai Ghanayia Ji, the dedicated disciple of Guru Gobind Singh Ji, who served wounded soldiers of both sides in the battlefield. This centre acts as a liaison between students, faculty, staff, and community organizations of the area. It works in tandem with the college NSS and NCC units which are always in the vanguard of community services.

The college has adopted some villages for various services. For the past several years, the students have volunteered to perform village cleanups village paths are levelled and pot-holes are filled up particularly after the rainy season. Village pastures are cleared up of plastic and synthetic waste. A few months earlier students carried out 'Adult Literacy' drive in one of the adopted villages. The volunteers from our Agriculture Department help farmers in plantation making them aware of the suitable varieties of crops and modern methods of farming.

While deciding about the campaigns the interests of the volunteers are taken into consideration. The teachers first have a conversation with small groups of students, generally in tutorial classes, to understand the causes they care about. Students often plan awareness marches in the city to enlighten the public against social evils, such as dowry deaths, female foeticide, drug addiction, communalism etc. Supported by college cultural society, volunteers stage street plays and skits in villages to generate awareness about burning issues.

Anandpur Sahib, by virtue of its holy and historical status, is the venue for several fairs and festivals. Our student volunteers perform commendable service by assisting various NGOs in running First-Aid booths, regulating traffic, arranging drinking water and in guiding the tourists and pilgrims. Our volunteers serve in community kitchen set up for the pilgrims with great dedication. In addition, our college volunteers conduct cleanliness campaigns in and around the city, take part in blood donation camps and shoulder responsibility during national calamities.

It has been noticed that community service provides students with the motivation necessary to put forth effort in academics. It generates positive feelings among the students. Timetable constraints and academic schedule deadlines are the main limitations in the full-throated implementation of this activity.

5. Evidence of Success

These simple initiatives made a big impact and allowed students to see they can be a part of something empowering. For example, so many students volunteered themselves for helping old people and children cross road safely near schools and hospitals that we had to face difficulty in selecting a manageable group from among them.

Under the able guidance and persuasion of Bhai Ghanayia Ji Community Service Centre, liberal contributions were made to help the victims of natural disasters in Utrakhand and Jammu & Kashmir. Students collected warm clothes, blankets and water bottles to help the affected people.

Many students care deeply about the threats facing our environment and show so much interest in helping their community “go green” that they pool in money to buy saplings in bulk from the nurseries.

The students involved in adult literacy drive and helping the aged around found the whole activity so satisfying and enlivening that they decided to celebrate New Year with the aged of their village.

By participating in service projects, students forge bonds with each other, as well as other members of the community. These bonds enhance their interpersonal skills and increase their social network.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Generally the students are quite enthusiastic about community service activities except when the exams are close at hand, for mostly holidays or special days are used for such activities. Students from science and professional streams are hard pressed to spare any time particularly due to semester system of examination. They often hesitate to participate in those community service camps which are held away from the college or encroach upon their tuition schedule. Certain service activities require special kind of ‘kits’ which became a little difficult to procure in sufficient number from the concerned departments. Mostly the college uses its own resources to provide required implements or equipment etc. Some students also make small but meaningful contributions.

7. Notes

Very soon, we are planning to devise a mandatory policy requiring students to complete certain hours of community service during graduation. We feel that it is essential to enhance social connectedness that appears to be waning in our increasingly segmented society.

Report of the Peer Team on Institutional Accreditation of
Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Anandpur Sahib, 140118
Distt. Ropar, Punjab

Section I: Preface

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College was established in 1968 through the concerted efforts of certain visionaries and benevolent individuals who joined hands to form Anandpur Sahib Education Society. Named after the Ninth Guru, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College seeks to give contemporary relevance to the prophet's message of righteous living and selfless service to the humanity. It is a coeducational semi-urban college and for many years after its inception, the college had the honour of being the only institution of higher learning in the entire belt that lay between Hoshiarpur and Ropar. In tune with the College motto 'May I never refrain from righteous deeds', it has been serving the need for higher education of a somewhat remote and economically backward region for over 37 years. The objectives of the College are to promote the values of nationalism, secularism and universal brotherhood and also to impart moral and ethical education, respecting the culture and religious heritage of the land. The College appears to have been successful in bringing out students, particularly the girls, from their four walled houses to enter into the higher education. The College has the enthusiastic patronage of Shiromani Gurudwara Prabandhak Committee that initially let on lease the land for the College premises and in 1977 took direct control of the College. The Management runs several other educational institutions also.

The UGC recognised Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College under its clauses 2(f) and 12(b) in May 1983. It is a government aided college affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala. This is a multi-faculty, co-educational undergraduate college imparting traditional and vocational education. h n v - l r -

The College is situated within a campus area of 15 acres. The College runs only five programmes, all Undergraduate (four majors- B.Sc. Physics, Chemistry, Maths, B.Sc. Zoology, Botany, Chemistry, B.Sc. Computer Applications, and the B.Com) and one B.A. having three subjects out of the available seven options, apart from the compulsory subjects Punjabi and English. The different departments of Arts Faculty are Economics, History, Mathematics, Political Science, Defence Studies, Religion, Physical education, Computer application, Punjabi, Hindi and English. The Science faculty consists of the departments of Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Zoology, Botany and Computer Science. The total strength of students is 719. The girl students are 379. Only 11 students are from other states.

The College has teaching staff of 22 permanent teachers, 03 temporary and 03 teachers as the part time/guest faculty. Only 03 of the faculty are Ph.D.s but 11 hold the degree of M.Phil. 08 of the faculty members are females. There are 12 non-teaching, 06 administrative and 06 technical staff.

The teachers of the College are recruited through a selection committee of the managing committee having the composition as per UGC and government guidelines. The university recruits non-teaching staff as per government rules and regulations. The annual budget of the College for the current year is Rs.1,56,11,788 only. The unit cost of education including salary is Rs.21,713.20 while excluding salary it is Rs 4512.14. The temporal plan for academic work of the College is annual system. The College has support services like central library, computer center, a multipurpose assembly hall, dispensary, the sports facilities, gymnasium, guest house, principal's residence, canteen, grievance redressal cell, a vehicle parking shed and a common room for girls. Handwritten signature and one the PCS (Judiciary) exam. Also, being the UG college, no research culture exists.

The total number of working days of the College is 230 out of which 170 are teaching days. The working days of the library are also 230. Drop out rate is about 7%. Success rate is about 84%.

The College has mobilised about Rs.6,65,000 through donations and certain fund raising drives.

The College volunteered to be assessed by NAAC, Bangalore and sent its Self Study Report (SSR) in March, 2004. NAAC constituted a Peer Team consisting of Prof. L.S. Rathore, Former Vice-Chancellor, Jai Narain Vyas Jodhpur University, Jodhpur, Rajasthan as its Chairman, Prof. A. K. Indrayan, Ex-Dean, Faculty of Science, Department of Chemistry, Gurukula Kangri University, Hardwar, Uttaranchal as Member Co-ordinator and Prof. U.C. Jain, Principal, Govt. PG College, Narsingpur, Madhya Pradesh as its Member. The Peer Team, visited the College on 24-25 October, 2005. The Team after validating the SSR, interacting with all sections of the College Community, and visiting the existing infrastructural facilities would like to record the following criteria wise observations.

Section 2: Criterion-wise Analysis

Criterion I: Curricular Aspects

As an affiliated College of Punjabi University, this College follows the syllabi prescribed by the University for the Humanities, Sciences and Commerce faculties with annual examination pattern. Most of the courses are according to the revised syllabi suggested by the UGC. The College is an under-graduate college and offers only 05 programmes. In B.Sc. there are three programme options, both in the triple major system (Physics, Chemistry, Maths; Physics, Maths, Computer Applications and Zoology, Botany, Chemistry). In B.A. a student has to opt three subjects among the 08 available (Punjabi, Hindi, Mathematics, History, Pol. Sc., Economics, Religion, Physical education, Computer application and Defense Studies,). In B.Com. there are seven papers in each of the three years. It, too, has the compulsory subjects English and Punjabi. The options of offering the subjects like Religion and Defense Studies are quite in tune with aims and objectives of the College. The students have a flexibility to pursue various programmes as per their interest out of the available options.

To introduce a new programme within the regulations of the parent university system, the College takes six to twelve months. The College is represented at the Academic Council of the University by the Principal who interacts with the parent university on suggestions and observations about all the academic issues and help in bringing suitable changes periodically. Seven of its teachers are members of the respective Boards of Studies and play a vital role in updating the syllabi and making them more relevant to the society and industry.

Academic peers from the surrounding areas are invited frequently to deliver lectures and seminars and a feedback from them is sought regarding the curricula of the University. There is a compatibility of the programmes with the goals and objectives.

The ratio of knowledge:skills is 65:35 in Science and about 80:20 in Arts and Commerce streams.

Criterion II: Teaching-Learning and Evaluation

The College follows the admission policy as stipulated by the State Government and in accordance with the procedure laid down by the University and the policy of reservation of Govt. of Punjab. College selects the students for admission on the basis of their academic record and also through interview.

The College prepares academic calendar of the year in the light of the university guidelines. Time-table and classes are allocated right in the beginning of the session. The heads hold the meeting of their departments where the details of the curricula completion are finalised. The academic calendar is followed in letter and spirit.

Students' knowledge and skills are assessed after admission through periodical tests and house examinations. The College monitors overall performance of the students to ensure the achievement of the course objectives. The College runs remedial coaching classes for educationally disadvantaged students. The advanced learners are challenged to work ahead of others by giving them extra assignments. Students are encouraged to participate in intra and inter college competitions like essay writing, debates, paper reading and quiz etc. The teachers also hold group discussions and quiz sessions with students. Character and personality development are emphasised in all activities. Educational tours are also organised.

Guest lectures on special topics are arranged from time to time. However, the use of the audio-visual aids, overhead projectors and slide projectors need to be encouraged.

Working days of the college in a year are normally 230, out of which the teaching days extend up to 170. Every teacher is required to take a teaching load of 18 hrs per week. The ratio of teaching to non-teaching staff is approximately 2.5:1. About 95% of the classes are taught by the full time faculty.

The teaching faculty of the College is qualified. Out of a total of 28 teachers (including 03 part-time/guest faculty), 03 hold the Ph.D. degree and another 11 hold the M.Phil. degree. The strength of non-teaching staff is 12, while there are 06 administrative and 06 technical staff. The participation of teachers in attending seminars, conferences, workshops needs be encouraged. Only five teachers have participated at the national level seminars and none at international level in last three years. So far none has acted as a resource person.

Selection and appointment of teachers are made in accordance with University/Punjab Govt. rules. For unaided courses the teachers are recruited purely on merit, preference given to Ph.D. holders.

The evaluation of the performance of teachers is done on the basis of results and their general conduct. Principal takes a note of this and sends his report. Feedback from students is also sought and given due weightage. Faculty development programmes are available for refreshing of the knowledge and skills of the teachers. 08 teachers have attended the Refresher courses/Orientation programmes in last two years.

College has organized seven Seminars/Symposia and Workshops in last three years.

Criterion III: Research, Consultancy and Extension

Being only an under-graduate college, no research atmosphere prevails in the College. About 10% of its teachers are Ph.D. degree holders but none of them is engaged in active research. College is not a recognized center for Ph.D.
