

Guest Lecture on Importance of Journalism

P.G department of History in collaboration with Alumni Association of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College Sri Anandpur Sahib organized an expert talk on Importance of Journalism among the students of social science department on 1st September 2022. S. Sukhdev Singh, an alumnus of the college who is presently working as journalist at ETV Bharat at Chandigarh, delivered a lecture on the topic importance of Journalism. He explained that how a journalist provides accurate and timely information to the public about every corner of the world and serve as public watchdog and how we people use data and facts to make decisions about different aspects of life. More than 40 participants from the department attended the session. At the end of the lecture Dr. Ravinder Singh Rekhi HOD History Department express his vote of thank in beautiful words. Dr. Virpal Singh Political Science department and Prof. Ravinder Singh History department were also there.

