

Celebration of World Food Day Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib in collaboration with Institution Innovation Council (IIC) organized an inter-college food fest on the occasion of “World Food Day” on 16-10-2024. Students showcased and sold a variety of food items they had prepared themselves. Dr. Jasvir Singh the college principal encouraged students to explore entrepreneurship and emphasized the advantages of self-employment and the importance of healthy eating. The event was judged by Dr. Gurpreet Kaur (HOD) Department of English, Prof. Bhawna Thakur (HOD) Department of Agriculture, Dr. Parampreet Singh Department of Commerce, and Prof. Prabhjot Kaur (HOD) Department of Fine arts. The First Prize was awarded to B.Voc Food Processing (Sem III), second prize went to B.Sc (H) Agriculture (Sem I), and third prize was secured by the students of Babbar Akali Memorial Khalsa College, Garshankar. Consolation prizes were given to students from B.Sc (H) Agriculture (Sem III and Sem V). The event was coordinated by Prof. Bhawna Thakur (Head of Department) along with the faculty members of department of Agriculture.

Objective- To encouraged students to explore entrepreneurship and emphasize the advantages of self-employment and the importance of healthy eating

Benefits- Help students to improve their marketing skills alongwith food preparation.

No.of students participated-115

No. of faculty participants-25

Instagram Link-

<https://www.instagram.com/p/DBL0JBMSMRB/?igsh=b3g2ajVhbHRwbmZ3>

Facebook link- <https://www.facebook.com/share/p/2fb4od44r8492YGi/?mibextid=xfxF2i>