

Report

Institution's Innovation Council, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, Punjab organises a Mentoring session for students of Bhai Nand Lal Public School on 18th July, 2024 on topic Transforming ideas into entrepreneurship by Dr. Tejinder Kaur Innovation ambassador and member of Institution's Innovation Council. The main focus of the lecture was to provide knowledge to student that how innovative ideas are developed and transformed into startup. Students learnt how to assess market needs and identify opportunities where they can execute their ideas to solve real problems of business. Case studies and examples of successful startups that have effectively converted innovation into business were also discussed. A discussion was also there about different funding options available for startups, such as venture capital, and seed funding etc. 45 students as well three faculty members, of the school joined this enriching and informative session.

Objective of the Program: - To create awareness and provide basic knowledge to the students about the working of Institution's Innovation Council.

Benefits: - It will make students familiar with the significance of the Institution's Innovation Council.

No of Student participant: - Around 45

Link before event: -

<https://www.facebook.com/share/p/X2oe1SnMmgzNZDYE/?mibextid=WC7FNe>

Facebook link: -

<https://www.facebook.com/share/p/VZUD6DH5YwEHc4hV/?mibextid=WC7FNe>

