

SRI GURU TEG BAHADUR KHALSA COLLEGE, SRI ANANDAPUR SAHIB
Celebrated National Voluntary Blood Donation Day
Dated: 1 October 2024

According to the orders of Punjab State Blood Council Chandigarh, National Voluntary Blood Donation Day was celebrated today at Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College Sri Anandpur Sahib with the support of Youth Red Cross Unit Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College Sri Anandpur Sahib. On this occasion, Senior Medical Officer Dr. Anand Ghai motivated the visiting volunteers to donate blood and informed about the importance of blood donation. The young volunteers who continuously donate blood were awarded with Momanto's. After that poster making competition was conducted for the blood donation of Khalsa College students and they were honoured with Momanto. After this, an awareness rally was held by the students of Khalsa College regarding blood donation, which was organized by the college principal Dr. Jasvir Singh sent off with the green flag. On this occasion, the in-charge of the Red Cross Unit, Prof. Sukhwinder Singh, Dr. Virpal Singh, Prof. Ravinder Singh, Rana Bakhtabar Singh, Surinderpal Singh, Anita Sharma, Aradhana, Jagdeep Singh, Sanjeev Kumar etc were present.

