

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib
RED CROSS UNIT

A two-days Youth Red Cross Day

Date: 20-21 September 2023

The two-day event organized by the Red Cross Society, Chandigarh at the local Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College under the management of the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee on the occasion of Bhai Ghanhaiya Ji's birthday was memorable.

Singh Sahib Giani Sultan Singh Jathedar Takhat Sri Keshgarh Sahib was the chief guest and member of Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee and Chairman of Sikh Research and History Board Bhai Amarjit Singh Chawla attended as a special guest. On the second day, at the beginning of the event, Secretary Red Cross. Shivdular Singh Dhillon retired IAS attended as the chief guest. During his address on this occasion, he asked to adopt the concept of service in life like Bhai Ghanhaiya ji. He informed that an awareness campaign is being started by the Red Cross Society Punjab in which the students of all the schools and colleges of Punjab will be made aware about the work being done by the Red Cross and this society. College Principal Dr. Jasbir Singh was the chief guest. Shivdular Singh Dhillon and other guests were warmly welcomed. Principal Dr. during his address. Jasbir Singh said that while secular education is imparted in the college, students are also encouraged to connect with their glorious history, rich religious heritage. Students who won in various events The prize was given by Shivdular Singh Dhillon. The volunteers of Khalsa College Red Cross Unit won big in the competitions organized in this event. On this occasion, Dr. Malkit Singh, Prof. Harjinder Singh Biling, Dr. Manjit Singh, Dr. Ravinder Singh Rekhi, Dr. Surinder Sharma, Prof. Jagpinderpal Singh, Prof. Dilsherbir Singh, Prof. Sukhwinder Singh Incharge College Red Cross Unit and S. Amarjit Singh, Field Officer Punjab Red Cross Kulwinder Singh was the in-charge trainer and other Red Cross Society members were involved.

Picture: Secretary Red Cross S. Shivdular Singh Dhillon Honouring by College Principal Dr. Jasbir Singh, Field Officer S. Amarjit Singh and College Professors.

