(Successful Entrepreneur)

22.11.2024

(10:00AM - 01:00PM)

Institution's Innovation Council

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib

A workshop on Entrepreneurship was organized by the Institution Innovation Council (IIC) in collaboration with the P.G. Department of Commerce and Management at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib. The theme of the workshop was "My Story - Motivational Session." Prominent entrepreneur Madam Bhuvnesh Kaur from the "Rupnagar Sweets and Bakers" group attended and shared various experiences from her life with the students. The program was inaugurated by the college's principal, Dr. Jasvir Singh, who encouraged students to adopt beneficial practices in the field of entrepreneurship.

Dr. Gurpreet Kaur, President of the Institution Innovation Council, detailed the activities carried out by the council. The main aim of this program was to inform students about entrepreneurship and beneficial employment opportunities in today's world. Approximately 50 students from various classes including B. Com (Honors), B.voc Hospitality and Management and B.voc (Food Processing) participated in the program. Madam Bhuvnesh Kaur educated students about baking products such as various types of cakes, coconut laddoos, dhokla, and homemade sweets. The primary goal of this workshop was to awaken students to start hand-based work and establish their own businesses.

Madam Bhuvnesh Kaur elaborated in detail on the challenges related to handmade products, their solutions, and the techniques used for marketing these products. Students actively participated in the workshop by asking various questions and receiving answers. The program coordinator, Dr. Hardeep Kaur, Coordinator of the programme expressed special thanks to the esteemed guests and students present. Additionally, during this program, faculty members from the Commerce

Department and IIC members Dr. Gagandeep Kaur, Dr. Tajinder Kaur, Ramneet Kaur, and other members attended specifically.
