

Celebration of World Nature Conservation Day

The PG Department of Zoology, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib celebrated World Nature Conservation Day on July 28, 2019 in which students of the department planted different species of trees and conveyed a message that “We all must participate to protect, conserve and sustainably manage our natural resources, so that a healthy and stable environment can be maintained to ensure the well-being of present and future generations.”