

Participated in Zonal Level Quiz Competition organized by A.P.G.

Every year Association of Punjab Geographers organizes Quiz competition for the students of geography to flourish the geography subject and to build up confidence among the students and to prepare themselves for competitive exams. In this year, the Department of Geography, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, participated in the Zonal level Quiz competition organized by Association of Punjab Geographers at Govt. College, Rupnagar on April 26, 2022. Three students from Department of Geography participated in this quiz competition and secured Third position. It was great learning experience for the students. Prof. Daljeet Kaur (HOD), Department of Geography motivated and accompanied the students on this event.
