

PG Dept. of Commerce and Management organized Paper Reading Competition

PG Department of Commerce and Management organized “Paper Reading Competition” Competition on September 4th, 2023. The students of all first year classes of the department participated in the event. Current topics like: Psychological fitness of students, effects of social media on student life, possibility of India as world’s third largest economy, artificial intelligence and human co- existence or managing human life, digital marketing, roll of extracurricular activities in student life were the main topics. The main focus of the competition was to strengthen reading & writing skills of the students, to improve Vocabulary Skills and to make them a Good Speaker. Principal Dr. Jasvir Singh, appreciated the department for conducting the event. In the end Dr. Manjeet Singh, HOD of the department thanks to all. Dr. Tejinder Kaur and Prof. Manpreet Kaur were the coordinators of the event.

Sd/- Principal

Dr. Jasvir Singh