

Quiz Competition

Department of agriculture

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib

A quiz competition was organized by the Department of Agriculture at Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, on January 31, 2023. A total of 84 students enrolled in the B.Sc. (Hons) Agriculture program participated in the competition. Teams comprising five students from each semester were formed, and the competition ensued between them. The questions were meticulously crafted to align with the students' studied courses, encompassing general studies and current affairs. Dr. Jasvir Singh, the Principal of the college, commended the initiative undertaken by the department. He emphasized the importance of such activities, encouraging both students and faculty to engage in regular participation as it fosters a spirit of healthy competition among students, thereby empowering them to excel in competitive exams for higher studies. Professor Kamal Kumar, as the Head of the Department, was coordinator for the event. Professors Gurpinder Kaur, Gurpreet Singh, Kirandeep Kaur, Mandeep Kaur, Sanampreet Kaur, Simran Saini, and Yashpreet Kaur diligently arranged for the smooth conduct of the competition.
