

Visit to an Old Age Home

P.G. Department of English, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib organised a visit to Sant Baba Harbhajan Singhi ji Bridhasharam (Old Age Home) Village, Agampur, Sri Anandpur Sahib on August 21, 2024. The motive of the visit was to offer students the best opportunity to interact with the elderly residents, allowing them to gain a deeper insight into life experiences. Students engaged themselves in conversations with the elderly residents. This visit provided them with the opportunity not only to listen to their life experiences but also to develop an understanding of the hardships they have faced. Students also distributed fruits to the elderly residents. The visit left a positive impact on both the students and the residents, instilling in the students a sense of compassion, empathy, and respect for the old souls. On this occasion, Prof. Parvinder Kaur, Dr. Neha Parbhakar and Prof. Gurleen Kaur accompanied the students to the old age home.
