

Exhibition of Food Stalls

Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib hosted an exciting exhibition of stalls organized by students, showcasing a wide range of creative stalls. The event was held on 11-11-24, providing a platform for students to establish food businesses and skills of entrepreneur. Visitors also appreciate the interactive elements of exhibition such as live food preparation which engage them with new learning techniques. Overall, the exhibition of food stalls was a resounding success, offering a vibrant platform for food enthusiasts to discover new flavors and culinary trends. The event succeeded in bringing together a diverse group of exhibitors and visitors, fostering community engagement and providing valuable exposure to food businesses. With a few improvements in crowd and food management, future exhibitions have the potential to become even more enjoyable and efficient for all attendees. College principal Dr. Jasvir Singh appreciate the students efforts and motivate to participate in such events. Total 138 students participated in this event.

Students exhibiting food stalls

