

Department of Agriculture

Field Day on use of " Use of Potassium derived from Molasses"

The Students of B.Sc. (Hons.) Agriculture Visited the Field Day Organized by National Fertilisers Limited, on " Use of Potassium derived from Molasses", at Village Agampur, District: Rupnagar (Pb.) (Dated: 24/12/2024), The 25 Students of BSc Hons Agriculture & Farmers Participated in the Camp enthusiastically and Experts including Mr. Arjun dev Sharma Head Agriculture Unit, Mr. Shiv, Mr. Chander and Dr. Sanjay Sharma from NFL & KVK Una (HP), Delivered the lectures on the Importance of using Potassium in various crops for improvement which are very informative for the audience, Prof Kamal Kumar (Dean, Agriculture Sciences, Department of Agriculture) of the College Coordinate the event and also Delivered a Guest Lecture on this Occasion on " Management of Crops using Organic Inputs ", The use of Drone Technology is also demonstrated by Mrs. Gurdeep Kaur, Students interacted, Visited the Field and enhanced their knowledge, Principal of the College Dr Jasvir Singh praise the efforts and encourage Students for Participation in Such Events.

Demonstration of drone technology