Organized an Educational Visit – Punjab Vidhan Sabha, Chandigarh (24-02-2025)

P.G. Dept. of Political Science, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College Sri Anandpur Sahib, organized an Educational Visit at Punjab Vidhan Sabha, Chandigarh on 24 February 2025. Thirty students of UG and PG Classes visit at Punjab Vidhan Sabha. Main objective of this visit is to observe session, it provides students with a direct insight into the legislative process, allowing them to understand how laws are made, the roles of elected representatives, and how their concerns can be addressed within the government. It also offers an opportunity to observe debates, question-answer sessions, and witness the dynamics of the legislative assembly firsthand.

This visit to Vidhan Sabha can inspire greater political participation and encourage students to actively follow legislative proceedings. Students visited to observe actual proceeding of session and felt amazed to see the design and architecture of Punjab Vidhan Sabha building. Dr. Jasvir Singh, Principal of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College Sri Anandpur Sahib, praised the department of Political Science for organizing these types of activities. Dr. Sunita Rani was the convener of this visit. This event was organized by, Dr. Virpal Singh and Miss. Amandeep Kaur of Dept. of Political Science. This event was made successful by the efforts of entire teachers as well as positive participation from students.
