

Movie Session

Post Graduate Department of English, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib organized a Movie Session on April 15, 2025. The movie named The Skelton (based on Amrita Pritam's Pinjar) was watched by the students of MA English and BA Honors School in English. The movie is based on the partition of India and Pakistan that depicts the suffering of the people at that time. It was a heart-touching movie that delves into themes of love, loss, hope, and resilience. It has evoked a strong emotional response from the students. Feedback collected after the session was very positive. Many students expressed their interest in having more such sessions in the future. They felt that it was a refreshing change outside the classroom. The Head, Dr. Gurpreet Kaur conducted the session and encouraged the students to participate in upcoming events with great enthusiasm.
