

New Session Started at Gurudwara Sahib to inculcate the Moral Values

On 15 July 2024 , Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, commenced its new academic session with an inspiring ceremony at Gurudwara Sahib. The event aimed to instill moral values and spiritual wisdom among students, reflecting the teachings of Sikh Gurus. Principal , Faculty and Students participated in Path and kirtan, seeking blessings for the academic year. Addressing the gathering, college authorities emphasized the importance of ethics, discipline, and cultural heritage alongside academic pursuits. This initiative underlines the institution's commitment to holistic education, fostering character-building and connecting youth with Sikh traditions, thus promoting a balanced approach to modern education and moral development.
