

P.G.Punjabi Department
Guest Lecture and Essay Writing Competition
Dated: 21.02.2022

On the occasion of International Mother Language Day P.G Department of Punjabi organized Guest Lecture and Essay Writing competition on February 21, 2022. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Jasvir Singh, Principal of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib. This lecture was delivered on the topic "Importance of Punjabi Language". About 300 students participated in this lecture. It was a learning and interactive session for the participants where the resource person answered all the queries put up by the participants to their full satisfaction. Students Of M.A (Punjabi) are participated in essay writing competition. Sorav Dadri got first position, Mandeep Kaur got second position and Pooja got third position in this competition. This was a learning experience for the students. Books were given to the winner students by college Principal Dr. Jasvir Singh and Prof. Harjinder Singh. Dr. Gurpreet Kaur was the coordinator of this programme.

