

Paper Reading Competition

P.G. Department of Commerce and Management organised a "Paper Reading Contest" on September 10th, 2025. The students of first year classes of the department participated in the Activity. Current issues like: Emerging trends in E-commerce, Role of Discipline in students' life, Artificial Intelligence-Boon or Bane, Role of Education in Personal Development were the main topics covered in the event. The main aim behind the competition was to boost knowledge, develop time management, build confidence, fosters critical thinking and enhance the presentation skills of the participants. Such competitions play a significant role in shaping students into well- rounded, knowledgeable, and articulate individuals. Total 100 students were present in the event and 16 students participated in the contest. Harmanpreet Singh from B.Com (Hon) Sem Ist secured first position, Gurpreet Kaur B.Com (Hon) Sem Ist got second position and Rupali from B.Com (Hon) Sem Ist secured third position. The winners were awarded with prizes along with Consolation prizes to Jaspreet Kaur and Deepak. The Head of the Department Dr. Manjeet Singh congratulated the students and motivate them for future and exchange valuable thoughts. The event was coordinated by Dr. Navjeet Kaur, Dr. Manpreet Kaur and Prof. Ramneet Kaur.

Sd/- Dr. Jasvir Singh
(Principal)