

Visit to Saras Mela (PAU, Ludhiana)

Indian Knowledge System Cell in collaboration with PG Department of English, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, organized a one day visit of students of Undergraduate and Postgraduate students, to the Saras Mela held at Punjab Agricultural University, (PAU) Ludhiana on October 09, 2025. The mela showcased the rich culture, art, and handicrafts of different states of India. Various stalls displayed handmade products, traditional clothes, and delicious state specific cuisines. Students enjoyed folk dances, music, and cultural performances. The visit helped them to understand and appreciate India's rural art and heritage. Dr. Jasvir Singh, Principal, appreciated the IKS team and department's teachers for this initiative to understand and promote the tenets of Indian Knowledge System. It was an enriching experience. It was not only provided exposure to India's rich cultural and artisanal diversity but also highlighted the importance of rural entrepreneurship and sustainable livelihoods. This visit was coordinated by Dr. Gurpreet Kaur, Incharge IKS Cell and Head of PG Department of English, Dr. Shaveta Kaushal, Head PG Department of Economics, Dr. Manpreet Kaur, PG Department of Punjabi, Prof. Darshpreet Kaur and Prof. Jaspreet Kaur, PG Department of English.

